GATEWAY
'46

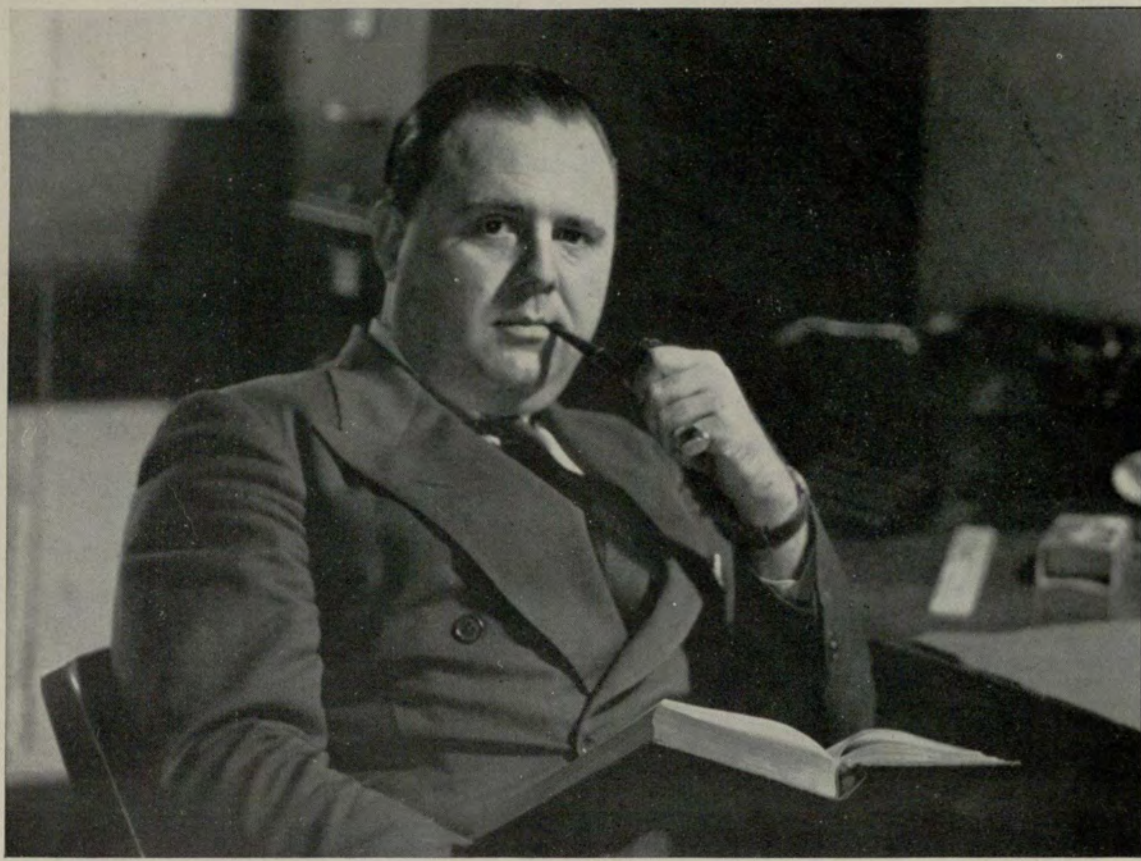

Here is the 1945-46 GATEWAY. In it you will find no ambitious scheme of presentation, no drawn-out record of the things any one individual has done. We simply high-light the make-up of our Junior College as it existed during its last year in the old building at 162 Luckie Street.

Although there are a few scenes taken in the new building, we leave its main presentation to our successors.

PROF. LUCIAN BELL

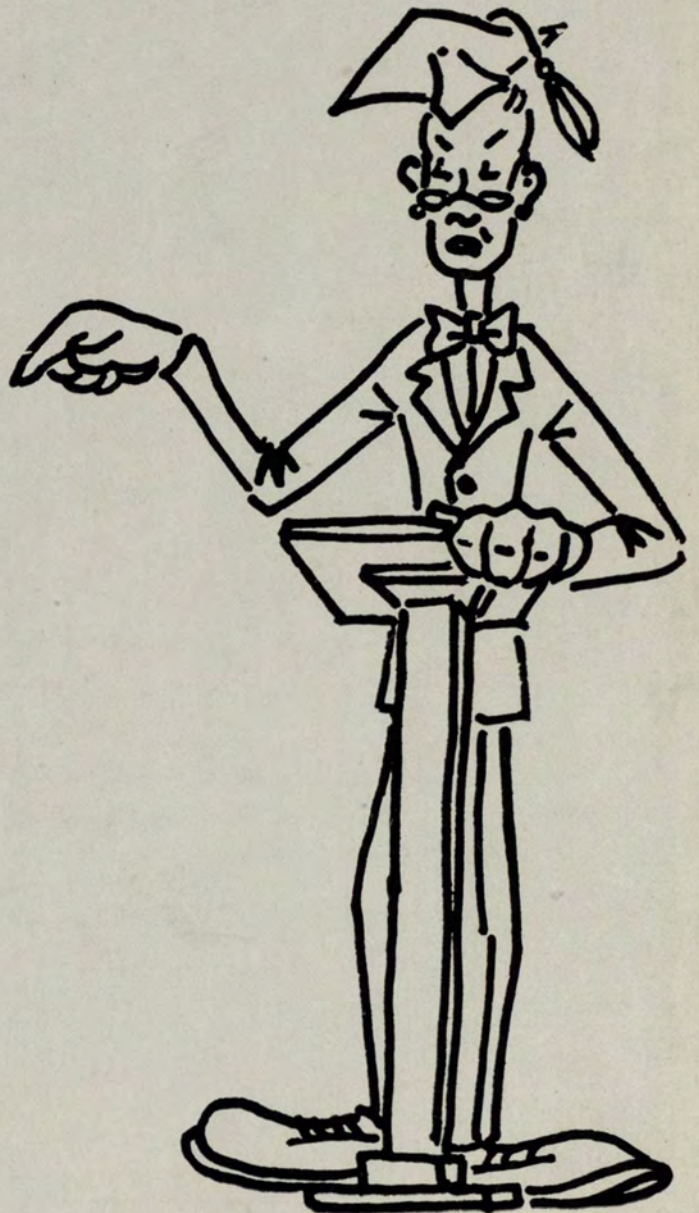

We dedicate our yearbook to one of the most genial and intriguing personalities in our school, whose devotion to, and inspiring concern for students, we cannot repay with mere words. We owe him a lasting debt of thanks, not with handshakes, but with good works.

Masque and Wig

President, Virginia Little, Mildred Cook, Lenore Cottongim, Ruth Gaskin, Ruth Gillespie, Hilda Harris, Jean Hovis, Sarah Joyner, Shirley Lawson, La Faye Leake, Mary Will Meador, Sheridan Putman.

At one time, these girls aspired to become Thespians. A Thespian's throne is a most difficult place to occupy, for real Drama, of which all Thespians are a part, is a most difficult study to master. Whether any of the girls have yet reached the goal, we cannot say, but we do admit that they look much better sans masques and wigs.

Home Economics Club

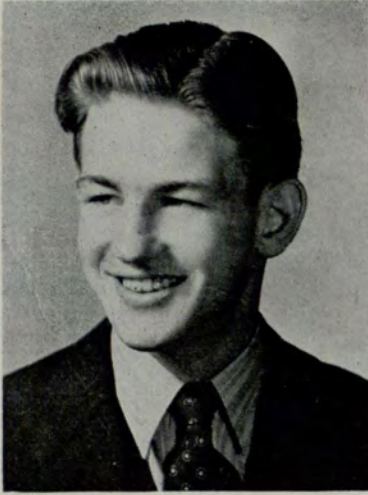

The Home Economics Club did not supply the Annual Staff with anything relative to their purpose. On this basis, we can only say that the club must exist for the sake of Home Economics. It is supposed that problems of home-making, home-running and home life in general, are immediate entities of the club. If these girls can do a better job around the house than our political economists are doing 'round the world, they have our best wishes for contented husbands, happy kids and long lives. The good 100% red-blooded American home needs their help.
