Sorority Rush

Like the fraternities, the sororities at Georgia State engage in intensive drives each Fall to recruit new members. A rapid succession of teas and hen-parties attract potential pledges. Through these social activities, each sorority's sisters and potential pledges get to know one another and the rushees get to familiarize themselves with the different sororities. Although the sorority rush parties exclude male guests, they never seem to lack in enjoyment for the participants.

Fraternity Rush

At the start of each Fall Quarter the social fraternities undertake extensive campaigns to procure their choices of pledges. Smokers and parties swirl by so fast that the student signing up for rush is thrown into a state of confusion—he must try to separate in his mind the brothers of the different fraternities and then to choose the fraternity in which he feels he can best fit. The choice of a fraternity rests not only with the rushee, but also with the acception or rejection of the candidate by the fraternity. Rush is a whirlwind of social festivities in which the fraternities' brothers and potential pledges both enjoy the hypnotic effect of the mad frolicking.

The only eventuality that could have marred Sigma Phi Epsilon's party would have been a raid by the revenuers or Elliot Ness's men.

Characteristic of all rush parties is a loud rock n' roll combo.

GRADUATION

Dedication

As Dean of Students at Georgia State College, Dr. William M. Suttles is the counselor and helper of countless students in their progress through the College, and they remember him always with humane warmth and great respect. Knowing his concern for their welfare and his desire to be of assistance to them, students besiege his office from the rising of the sun to the going down of the sun, seeking a chance to consult him, to talk over their problems with him, to draw comfort from having a conversation with him. And even when he is unable to offer a solution to their difficulties, they go away with a better heart for their affairs than they have had before speaking with him.

When Dr. Suttles acts in his capacity as College disciplinarian, the students feel that they have been dealt with by a kind man who is sympathetic with them and their plight but who also has a moral conviction about what proper and good conduct is. He assesses blame carefully and apportions penalty justly, always bearing in mind what he must bear in mind as a Christian Gentleman: that humankind seems to be by nature a little less than flawless.

After his schooling in the public schools of Atlanta and Fulton County, Dr. Suttles enrolled at Mercer University for a year, transferring to the Georgia Evening College, one of the earlier names of Georgia State College, from which he received the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science. He has since received these degrees: Bachelor of Divinity from Yale, Master of Theology and Master of Religious Education from Emory, and Doctor of Education at Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

In addition to his service in education, Dr. Suttles also serves in religion. Ordained at eighteen, he has been a preacher ever since and is currently the pastor at the Haralson and Luthersville Baptist Churches. He was chosen as Georgia Rural Minister of the Year in 1959.

Dr. Suttles believes in community service. For example he is on the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Kiwanis Club. He has served in such positions as Chairman of the Committee on Manpower and Education of the Georgia Nuclear Advisory Commission and as Chairman of the George M. Sparks Scholarship Fund. He is a Lieutenant-Colonel on Governor Vandiver's staff. During the War of 1939-1945, he served as a Lieutenant junior grade in the Chaplain Corps, USNR.

In 1950 Dr. Suttles married Julia Lanette Lovorn of Hapeville, and she is a true helpmate to her husband. Charming lady that she is, she aids and comforts him in his life and work.

People who know Dr. Suttles admire and respect him greatly. They are aware that he possesses character, and character in these days is a much admired and all-too-rarely-possessed virtue.

Considering Dr. Suttles' nature and his personal inclination, one might well quote verse fifty-eight from the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians: "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." Dr. Suttles has done his work always as a part of the Christian life.

We are fortunate at Georgia State College to have so capable, so wise, and so good a man as Dr. Suttles for our Dean of Students.

Spring Festival is held during the last week of April at Georgia State.

The May Queen, Miss Conni Loy, was crowned in Hurt Park as the leading beauty queen of Spring, 1960. A sophomore, the 20 year old queen has black hair and blue eyes. She is SPE Sweetheart and a member of Delta Zeta Sorority.

The Pershing Rifles Drill Platoon acted as escorts for the festive occasion.

DRAMA

The Georgia State Players under the directorship and supervision of Mr. Sligh gave three excellently-performed three-act plays this year. These dramas were all comedies. They were "The Little Foxes," "The Philadelphia Story," and "Bell, Book, and Candle." All three plays were capably presented and appreciatively received. The superior performances by the Players were the result of many exhausting hours of rehearsals, prop construction, stage management and direction, and make-up preparation. The Players' greatest desire is to please the audience by giving them a brief relief from reality through first-rate entertainment.

IFC champs huddle in ΣΝ game.

ΚΑΕ captured IFC football this year in one of the tightest seasons in IFC competition. ΚΑΕ suffered one defeat but managed to avoid a tie; therefore, ΣΝ and ΣΦΕ, with a loss and tie, saw the trophy slip from their hands after having it in their grasp. ΠΚΑ blasted ΚΑΕ in opening game, but ΚΑΕ led by fine blocking and the running of "Chicken" Jennings and Charlie Griswell kept the slate clean for the rest of the season. ΣΝ, only undefeated team in competition, went down under the ΚΑΕ battery 13-0. ΣΝ and ΣΦΕ battled to a tie in the closing game and ΚΑΕ claimed title to IFC Football Champions.

Sigma Nu

The purpose of Sigma Nu Fraternity—to promote scholarship, leadership, and brotherhood—is exhibited by the Eta Gamma Chapter as it continues the advance. Aside from having eight of its members named to the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and twelve brothers on Student Council, including the presidents of both Day and Night Schools, the fraternity had the highest point average fall quarter of any social organization.

The 1960 IFC softball championship, first place in Skit Night of Greek Week, and Mardi Gras king and queen are only a few of Sigma Nu's accomplishments.

Although Sigma Nu is active in scholastic activities, the brothers do not neglect the social life of college. They have an annual Snake Pit Party, New Year's Eve Party, and White Star Formal Weekend, along with many informal parties throughout the year.

Piedmont Nurses

Piedmont Nurses is one of the three hospital nurse training programs at Georgia State. The first year nursing students attend our school during the Fall and Winter Quarters each year. For hours on end each day they are pumped full of sciences, English, and history. At the conclusion of the day at Georgia State they return to Piedmont Hospital, where they are subjected to many more hours of hard, on-the-spot training. The lot of the student nurse is neither an easy one nor one that allows for much spare time. However, along with the drudgery of academics and training goes a commendable spirit of unselfish devotion to the pursuit of humanitarianism and the self-satisfaction that attends it.

Piedmont Nurses do not neglect the social side of college life in their brief period with the school. At almost all of the college's dances and social affairs some of the student nurses are seen to be present.

The Piedmont Nurses Education Society is composed of far more student nurses than are pictured on these pages, for only first year student nurses attend classes here. As with most organizations, the officers are generally fairly senior members. So it is with Piedmont Nurses. Their officers, who are not pictured, are as follows: Linda McSwain, president; Elizabeth Mathews, vice-president; Karen Miller, recording secretary; Mary Pender, corresponding secretary; Sue Skinner, treasurer; and Glenda Cook, assistant treasurer. Their advisor is Mrs. Elsie Fitzgerald.
