"I just thought I'd come by and explain why I haven't been in your class the past two weeks. See, my grandmother's been sick and my parents went up to Ohio to see her. So I've been staying home with my little brother and sister. Sir? Yes sir, I heard we had a big test. No, no — I'd rather wait and take it Monday. My term paper? Well, uh . . ."

"Hey, how'd ya get hold of this? Let's go over to the library and run off some copies!"

"No need. I have a Xerox machine at my apartment."

"Now — to find a seat! If it's not the businessmen, it's the Women's Garden Club."

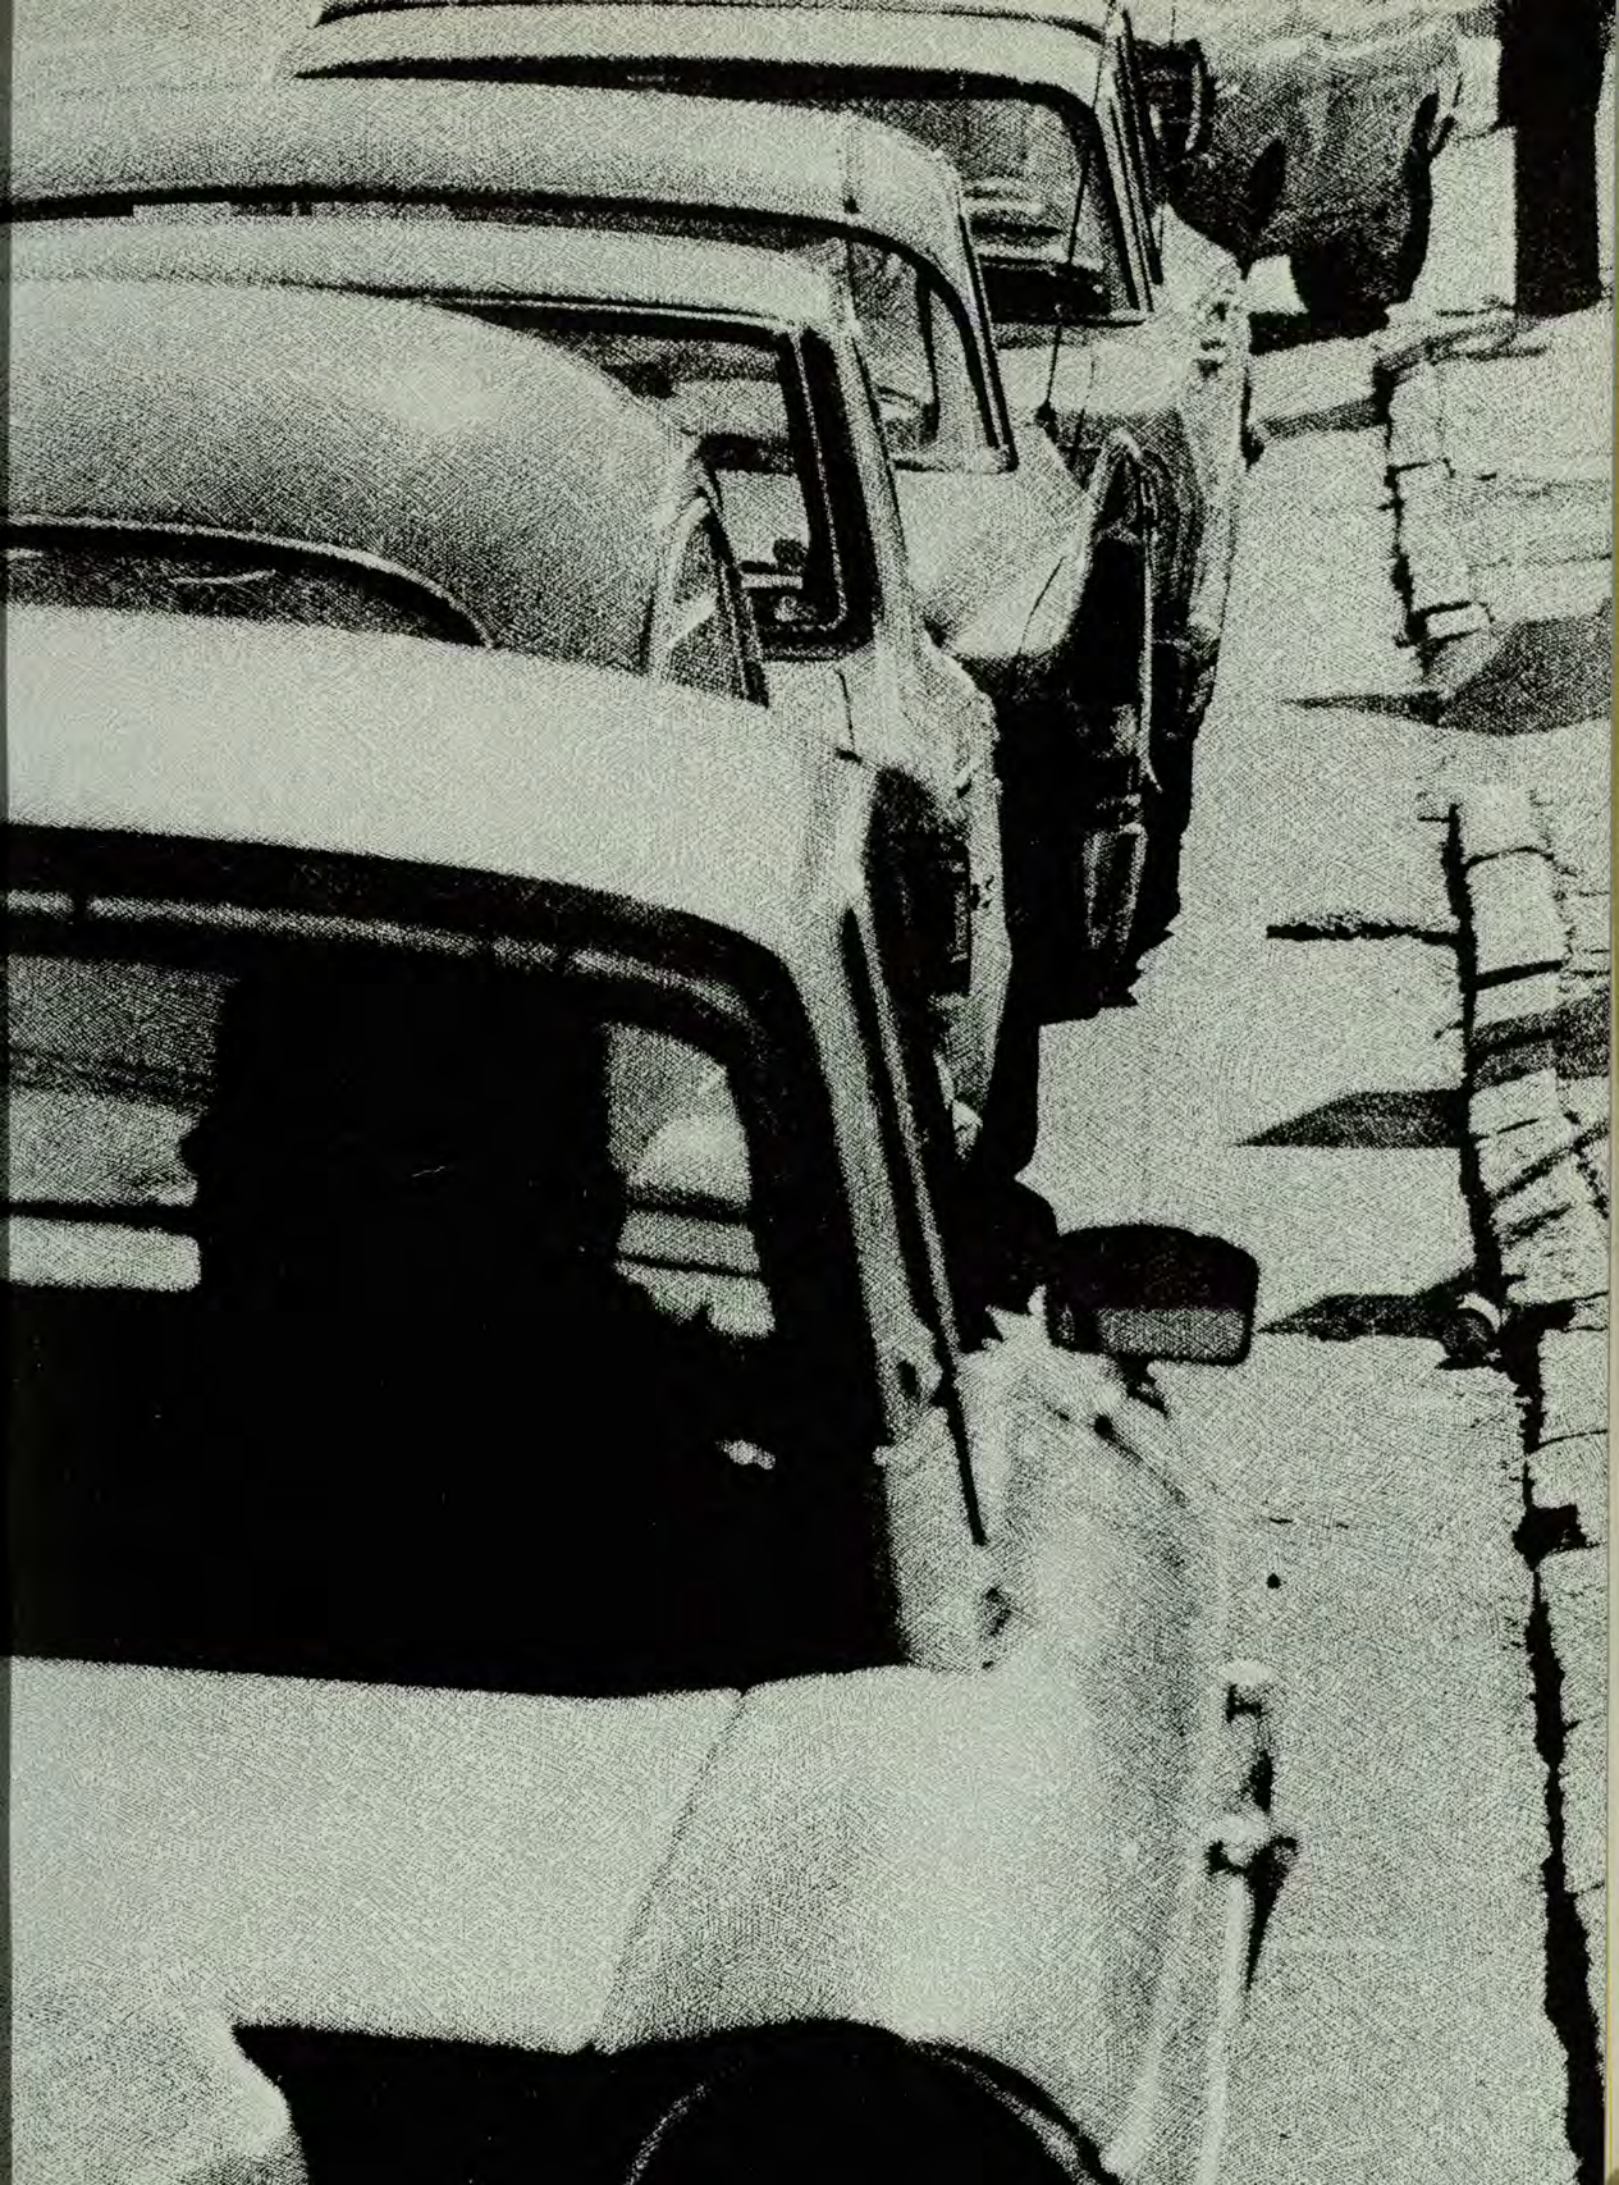

"There he is! Now what'd you say your name was?
Are ya having a good time? Man, do we party!
Did ya meet our sweetheart? Tuff, huh!
You're coming to the party Saturday night, aren't ya?
Be sure to wear your white shoes. The whole fraternity 'll be there — both of us!"

LOOK FOR THE

The logo for Alpha Kappa Delta is a large, stylized, brown outline of a key. The key has a circular head with a loop at the top. The shaft of the key is a hexagon with a complex, geometric pattern inside, resembling a stylized 'AKD' or a similar monogram. The bit of the key is a simple rectangular shape at the bottom.

Like every editor before me, I thought the last page would never be turned in. It was, of course, and now I should thank a few people: Mr. James E. Sligh, our adviser, Mr. Ed Jones, our representative, Mr. Ike Boyette, a friend who gave me a lot of advice, and my staff — Judy Guy, Alexa Brown, Fred Bray, Ellen Robertson, and Deborah DeVaney. I owe a special debt to Deborah who helped on every part of the book without ever having to be asked.

Before I started to write all this, I read the comments of some past editors. I found their words full of proud accomplishment, relief, and a little bitterness. My feelings about the 1971 RAMPWAY are really described by this quote from Mark Twain:

... and so there ain't nothing more to write about, and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't a tackled it and I ain't agoing to no more.

Celine Payne
Editor, 1971 RAMPWAY
