*For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:*

*a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck
up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time
to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a
time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast
away;
a time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time
to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.*

THOSE WERE
DAYS, MY FRIEND

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

ΑΤΩ

We are
What we are Because we chose
And were Chosen
To receive
And to revere
A special treasure . . .
Woven of wisdom
And integrity
And commitment . . .
Of reassuring pride,
Upward striving,
And joyful Fruition.

To accept it
Is our privilege . . .
To nurture it Is our goal.

Our responsibility
Is to dedicate ourselves
To the ideals
And the challenge
Of those Whose dream
Became our Heritage.

GREEK WEEK

The primary joy of life is acceptance, approval, the sense of appreciation and companionship of our human comrades. Many men do not understand that the need for fellowship is really as deep as the need for food, and so they go throughout life accepting many substitutes for genuine, warm simple relatedness.

Here it is at the end of the book, the end of my sentence as editor. How did the RAMPWAY come about? I really can't say, but it did come — one word, one picture, and one page at a time. To do this took many hours of work from, I hate to say, a few people. I want to thank them all — Tees, Jean, Joe, Debbie, Suzy, Bob and Gary. I hope that their lives are better by this activity.

I hope also that you, the reader, will be better because of this book. Every person is a book if you know how to read him. This is a book of many persons.
