Automobile
SHOW

All This Week - Here
Admission Free

Atlanta's automobile dealers are our guests for the week, with a most interesting display of latest models in standard makes of cars. Drive right into the building. You will be assigned to parking space for as long as you care to visit the show. No charge for admission or parking.

Latest equipment for the multitude of services that discriminating car-owners have come to expect. And the most efficient personnel for rendering these services. Our rates are standard and the same to all.

Formal Opening - Tuesday Afternoon

For the entire week we are keeping open house. Everyone is more than welcome to come in and go through the building. We want Atlanta and Georgia particularly to realize that this institution—the largest modern garage in the world—is in a class by itself.
