

Martha Free, Don Penny Named Editors Of Signal And Rampway

Miss Martha Free and Don Penny were named editors of the Georgia State newspaper and yearbook for the coming year at the Publications Banquet held at the Henry Grady Hotel on May 14.

Miss Free, who was announced as editor of the Signal, served as managing editor of the paper for the 1959 winter and spring quarters. Penny, who was announced as editor of the Rampway, worked on the yearbook for the past year.

The 1959 Rampway was dedicated to Dr. Kenneth M. England, Dean of the Men at the College. The dedication was made by Miss Toni McGlone, editor of the Rampway.

The 1959 Rampway will be out on May 28, Miss McGlone said.

Miss Free and Rod Spicer were awarded cups for outstanding work on the Signal. The cups are awarded annually by Blue Key, honor fraternity at the College. Spicer was editor of the Signal this year.

Miss McGlone and Gene Wilkes were awarded cups for outstanding work on the Rampway. Wilkes was art editor of the 1959 Rampway.

Journalism keys were presented to students on both publications for outstanding work.

Members of the Signal staff who received keys are Suzanne Buckholz, Carolyn Clark, Martha Free, Julia Ann Manos, and Marilyn Riley.

Rod Spicer, Clara Stokes, Miriam Tutt, and Linda Ward.

Members of the Rampway staff who received keys are Irma Daniels, Mary June Harkins, Jeritta Lea, Carolyn Lee, and Lorraine McCord.

Perle Mossman, Jimmy Oliver, Marilyn Riley, Hope Whitmire, and Gene Wilkes.

Miss Joyce Woodward was announced as the 1959 Rampway queen. Miss Kitty Stretch is the first attendant.

Mrs. Bernice McCullar, director of information, State Department of Education, was speaker for the Publications Banquet.

Rod Spicer served as master of ceremonies of the program.

The Publications Banquet is held annually at Georgia State College. It is held to honor students who have done outstanding work on the publications and to announce the new editors.

GOOD LUCK—Don Penny and Martha Free, newly elected editors of the Rampway and Signal respectively, congratulate and wish each other good luck in their new appointments. The announcement of the new editors was made at the annual publication dinner May 14. The new editors assume office summer quarter.

Tentative Graduation Lists Are Announced

Graduation exercises will be held for Georgia State College on June 7 in the City Auditorium.

Nine students will graduate from the School of Business with honors. They are Marilyn Irene Baruchson, Alton L. Lyle, Fred William Lyon, Jr., William Leonard Newman, Henry Virgil Parker, Andrew George Tampa, Owen C. Vardaman, Ernest Clifford Waldrop, and Amanda Faye Westbrook.

The tentative list of students who will receive the Bachelor of Business degree is: Harry F. Alford, Bobby Glenn Allen, Charles Watson Anderson, Walter Thomas Austin, William J. Bailey, Lewis Lee Baker, Phil Freeman Baker,

Five New Provisions Added To Probationary Status

Five provisions will be added to the probationary status of students beginning September, 1959, said William M. Suttles, Dean of Students.

The provisions are as follows:
 1. No student on probation shall hold a major office in either the Student Council, General Council, or any other organization that holds membership in either of those two Councils until the probationary status has been removed.
 2. A major office shall be that of President, Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer.
 3. No student on probation shall serve as chairman of any standing or regular committees that are connected with the College.

 4. No student on probation may represent the College on any of its athletic teams.
 5. When placed on probationary status, an officer shall either resign or be replaced by another member in good standing. The Office of the Dean of Students is to be notified in writing that any student holding a major office, a committee chairmanship, or a position on an athletic team has been removed pending academic restoration.

Any student in the College who is placed on probation receives a letter from the Guidance Office of the school in which he is enrolled. Now, the letter states that until the student has been removed from probationary status, he is not to participate in extra-curricular activities.

Constitution Is Before Student Council

The proposed Constitution for the Day School Student Council is now being considered by the Council.

The Constitution must be read in the Council two times and published in the College newspaper before it can be presented to the student body for vote.

While the Constitution is being read in the Council meetings, amendments may be proposed by members of the Council. Several minor changes have been made in the new Constitution.

The Constitution will probably be ready to be voted on around the end of May, said Monty Montgomery, chairman of the Constitution committee.

Final Exam Schedules Announced

Spring quarter final exams began June 1.

Graduate Division exams began June 1 and end June 4. Exams for 5:30 classes were held Monday, June 1, at 6 p.m. Exams for 7:30 classes will be held Thursday, June 4, at 6 p.m.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening class exams also began June 1. The schedule for evening class exams is 6:40 class exams on Monday, June 1, at 6 p.m.; 5:15 class exams on Wednesday, June 3, at 6 p.m.; and 8:05 class exams on Friday, June 5, at 6 p.m. Exams for 5:30 p.m. classes in the Tuesday and Thursday Evening Division will be held Tuesday, June 2, at 6 p.m. Exams for 7:40 classes will be held Thursday, June 4, at 6 p.m.

Day class exams will begin June 3 and end June 5. The schedule for day classes is 8 a.m. class exams on Wednesday, June 3, at 8 a.m.; 11:40 class exams on Wednesday, June 3, at 11 a.m.; 9 a.m. class exams on Thursday, June 4, at 9 a.m.; 12:40 class exams on Thursday, June 4, at 12 p.m.; 10:40 class exams on Friday, June 5, at 10 p.m.; 1:40 class exams on Friday, June 5, at 1:40 p.m.; 2 p.m. class exams on Friday, June 5, at 2 p.m.; and 2:40 class exams on Friday, June 5, at 2 p.m.

Biology 101-102 and all chemistry class exams will be held Tuesday, June 2, at 6 p.m. Students having conflicts may take exam on Friday June 5, at the arrangement of his professor.

Registration for summer quarter will begin Monday, June 15. Tuesday and Thursday evening classes begin June 16. Classes for day students and Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evening program students June 17.

New Masters Program To Be Offered in 1960

The Board of Regents has authorized a new masters' degree program for Georgia State College and allotted funds for a computer center.

The new degree will be offered for the first time in fall quarter of 1960. The degree will be a Master of Business Administration with a major in business education. The Regents also approved a $22,000 budget for the computer center. With the installation of the computer center, the College will offer courses in the use of the latest electronic equipment in business. The College will use the equipment for administrative purposes.

The center will cost $22,000 a year, including $15,360 a year rent for an IBM 305 RAMAC. The Regents specified that the money must come out of funds already available without any extra allocation.

Richard Barger, Donald L. Barrow, and Charles Winford Barrow. William C. Baxter, Thomas Walburn Beavers, Robert Gerald Birdson, Ralph Kendrick Blodgett, Walter F. Bowan, Eugene Tolly Brinley, William David Britton, William Hurdus Broeah, Jr., Howard Allen Brown, William Mosby Brown, Jr., Clarence Bryant, Jr., Emory Wells Bryant, John William Bryant, Arthur Merritt Burch, and John Robert Burkhalter.

Andrew J. Caldwell, Robert L. Callaway, Sr., Joe Lawrence Camp, Raymond Stephen Carver, James Edward Cato, Eddie Gilbert Chandler, Jr., James Kelley Chapman, Kenneth Jay Chapman, Bobby Lester Chastain, David Clarence Cheek, Tully Norman Clark, Wayne Parris Clyburn, Jackson Cleveland Coker, William Joel Collins, Ben Chamblee Cook, Marion F. Cornett, and Charles Louis Cottle.

Victor E. Covington, Jr., John Henry Cowart, Chester Ralph Dallas, William Edward Darden, Rufus F. Davis, Walter Lamar Davis, Jr., Corlyss L. Deadwyler, Jr., William B. Death, Jack E. DeLong, Donald Edgar Dillard, William Varner Dobbs, and Robert T. Dowling, Jr.

Norman Larry Eaton, Robert G. (Continued on Page 5)

Brown, Tracey Win Top Student Council Positions

First Woman President Is Elected Since World War 2

Linda Brown, a junior in the school of Arts and Sciences, was recently elected president of the Day Student Council at Georgia State College for the year 1959-60. James C. Tracy, a senior in the School of Business, was elected president of Night School Student Council.

This is the first time since World War II that a woman has been elected president of the Day Student Council, Mrs. Nell H. Trotter, dean of women, said.

Miss Brown is affiliated with Delta Zeta social sorority and was treasurer of the Sophomore class.

Tracy is an accounting major here. He attends college on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

Also in the Day School Student Council election John King was elected vice-president. He has served on the Student Council two quarters as a representative of his 10:40 class.

Shirley Gay was elected secretary of the Day School Student Council. She is corresponding secretary for Kappa Theta social sorority.

Lewis Ash, a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, was elected treasurer of Day School.

After the election Miss Brown said, "I'm real proud and excited. I would like to thank everyone who helped me because I couldn't do it alone. I want to make our Student Council the best it has ever been. I want the new Constitution to go through so that it will be the best it has ever been."

Miss Brown is the fifth woman to ever be elected president of the Day School Student Council. She is the first woman to ever have competition with men for the office and win, Mrs. Trotter said.

In the Night class elections the vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the Night Class Student Council were also elected.

George Adams, a senior in the School of Business Administration, was elected vice-president. Adams is majoring in management at Georgia State.

Margaret Mitchell, a member of Kappa Theta sorority, was elected secretary. She is a sophomore in the School of Arts and Sciences. Miss Mitchell is majoring in psychology.

Ed Tinnerman, a sophomore in the School of Business Administration, was elected treasurer.

Both Miss Mitchell and Mr. Tinnerman attended Southern University Student Government Association meeting in Auburn several weeks ago.

Day School elections were held Tuesday, May 19, in the Student Lounge. Night School elections were held Tuesday, May 19, for Tuesday and Thursday night students, and Wednesday, May 20, for Monday, Wednesday and Friday students.

Senator Richard B. Russell

Senator Russell To Speak At Graduation Commencement Exercises Will Be Held On June 7

For the second straight year, a United States senator will address the June graduating class of Georgia State College of Business Administration.

Richard B. Russell, senior senator from Georgia, will speak at the College's 44th Commencement exercises June 7, in the Atlanta Municipal Auditorium. Last year Georgia's Senator Herman E. Talmadge was the speaker.

Two hundred fifty-three students are candidates for degrees, including four for the Bachelor of Science degree—the first to be awarded since the B.S. degree program was initiated at Georgia State College in September 1958.

Senator Russell, a native of Winfield, has served in the Senate 26 years. The 61-year-old Georgian is outranked by only one senator in length of service—Senator Carl Hayden, Democrat of Arizona—although 35 of the present senators are older than he.

The Senator has won widespread recognition for his championship

Business Seniors Are Required To Take Special Test

Seniors in the School of Business Administration are required to take a test to evaluate their intellectual caliber, said Dr. Cameron Fincher, director of testing and counseling.

Tests were given May 19-20, at 1:30 and 6 p.m., both days.

Seniors in the School of Arts and Sciences are not required to take the test.

Seniors may take the test any quarter during their senior year. It is offered in four sessions during each quarter.

The test is "a short test of mental ability or intellectual efficiency," said Dr. Fincher.

The score on the test may be released to an employer with the student's permission and if the test score will be of benefit to the student.

This is the fourth year this test has been given to graduating seniors in the School of Business Administration.

Dean England Is Made Honorary Blue Key Member

Dr. Kenneth M. England, Dean of Men at Georgia State College, is the first honorary faculty member to be initiated into Blue Key, national honor fraternity.

Membership is based on character, scholarship, and activities.

Officers of Blue Key are Don Mitehum, president; Kenneth R. McCollum, vice president; Martin E. Ouzts, III, secretary-treasurer; and Alonzo M. Norris, III, corresponding secretary.

Members are Charles L. Barnes, David C. Cheek, Tommy Davis, Don Germano, Harold Goocher.

Frank T. Hannah, Jim L. Houchins, Levin Q. McPherson, and H. Virgil Parker.

Student Councils Here Hold Banquet on May 21

A banquet for the Day and Evening Student Councils was held Thursday, May 21, at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Awards were made at the banquet to some of the representatives for their work on the Day or Evening School Student Council.

Representatives who had been on the Student Council for six consecutive quarters and had regularly attended the meetings were awarded a silver key.

Students on the Day Student Council who received a silver key were Betty Bates, Jimmy Bowden, Jo Davis, March Miller, Don Mitcham, Monty Montgomery, Perle Mossman, and Marilyn Riley.

Night School Student Council members receiving the silver key were Helen Cochran, Marie Davis, Charles L. Ray and Mel Stout.

Representatives who served on one of the Student Councils for three consecutive quarters were awarded a bronze key.

Day Student Council Representatives receiving a bronze key were Linda Brown, Viola Coggins, Jeanie Hetzner, Catherine Hones, Pat McGuire, Lucy Speth, Martha Sudderth, Clara Stokes and Frances White.

Night School Representatives who received the silver key were Linda Baxter, Frank Byrd, Carolyn Clark, Martha Ann Clark, Arleigh Daniel, Helen Duke, William O. Mann, III, Jerry L. Marling, Henry V. Parker, Thomas Sangster, Harold Lee Smith, Thomas C. Smith, Catherine Stretch, Viola Westbrook and Ronald J. Williams.

Representatives of the Councils who regularly attended the meetings for one quarter were awarded a certificate.

Bascom O. Quillain, a faculty member of the Georgia State political science department, presented the awards to the representatives.

At the banquet President Noah Langdale, Jr., of the college, gave the greeting address and Dr. Kenneth England, dean of men, gave the invocation. Mrs. Nell H. Trotter, dean of women, gave the benediction.

Dr. J. C. Horton Burch, dean of the School of Arts and Sciences, spoke to the group on the progress of the past year in the School of Arts and Sciences.

Dr. James Chapman, chairman of the department of management, gave the progress report for the School of Business for the past year.

Don Mitcham, president of the Day School Student Council, and Charles Ray, president of the Night School Student Council, gave reports on the accomplishments of the Day and Night Student Council during the past year.

SENIOR AWARDS—Seniors at Georgia State who rendered outstanding service to the college during the past year were presented with the Senior Award. The seniors were, from left to right, Charles Ray, John Cowart, Bettye Bates, Boyd Duncan, Savilla Freeman, Virgil

Parker, Toni McGlone, Helen Cochran and Don Mitcham. William M. Suttles, dean of students, made the presentation. The awards were given during the Honors Day assembly held May 6 in the Student lounge.

Society

By CAROLYN CLARK
Signal Society Editor

Gail Rich flew to Jefferson City, Tennessee, May 2nd and 3rd to attend Carson Newman College's May Day Festival. Miss Rich transferred last Fall quarter to Georgia State from Carson Newman.

Virginia Maddox is engaged to Marshall Clarke, a student at Georgia Tech. The wedding will take place on August 16th at Capitol View Methodist Church.

Gerald Kemper, member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity is engaged to Miss Joy Lundborg, Alpha Chi Omega Sorority, at Emory University. The wedding will be June 27th at the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany.

Eddie Herring, Johnny Jones, Faye Elrod, Jeanie Hetzner, Pat McGlon, Mike McGlon, Alice Rose, Dan Bradley, Joe Neiron Eugenia Rice, Betty Campbell and Ann Waldrop attended the Georgia Baptist Student Convention at Rock Eagle Camp, April 17th, 18th, and 19th.

Pat McGlon, Pi Alpha Fraternity, was elected Vice-President of the Georgia Baptist Student Convention.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity held its annual Sweetheart Ball, May 23rd at the Biltmore Hotel.

Mary Jo Sudderth, Kappa Theta Sorority Pledge, is pinned to John B. Earnhardt, a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity at Stetson University in DeLand, Florida.

The "G" Club had a party at the Indian Creek Lodge Saturday Night, May 9th.

Martin Isenberg, Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity, is pinned to Harriet Diamond, a senior at Druid Hills High School.

Danny Moret is pinned to Diane Danneman, a former member of Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority at Georgia State.

Don Warren, member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, is pinned to Miss Pat Morgan, a former student of Georgia State College.

Harriet Diamond is the newly elected sweetheart of Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity. Her Sweetheart Court includes Eleanor Leff, Carol Jacobs, and Pearlina Lareh. Miss Diane Danneman was their sweetheart last year.

Harriet Anderson, Delta Zeta Sorority recording secretary, will spend the three summer months as a counselor at Camp Toccoa, Camp Fire Girls Camp. She will be in charge of sports in the Keona Division.

Carlene Sligh, Delta Zeta Sorority, will spend several summer weeks visiting aboard her uncle's yacht off the coast of Saint Petersburg, Florida.

Marie Davis, Kappa Theta Sorority, spent the week-end of May 15th in Erwin and Kingsport, Tenn. where she was honored at a dinner party. Miss Davis is the bride-elect of William Bryant. The wedding will be June 20th at Grace Methodist Church.

Carolyn Lee and Joyce Pickett, Delta Zeta Sorority members, have planned a summer trip to California which will begin June 29th. They will visit Los Angeles, Hollywood, Palm Springs and on their return trip spend a short time in Houston, Texas.

Beverly Roberts, of Kappa Theta Sorority, was chosen sweetheart of Alpha Kappa Psi Fraternity at their Spring Formal, May 16th.

The pledges of Kappa Theta Sorority have elected new officers. They are Mary Carroll, Pledge Captain, Mary Smith, Reporter and Ginny Horton, Treasurer.

Nadine Hicks, Delta Zeta Assistant Treasurer, plans to attend her sister's graduation from Dietics School at the University Hospital of the University of Oklahoma. Miss Hicks' sister, the former Jannell Hicks who was previously a Georgia State Delta Zeta Sorority member, has served as president of Delta Zeta at the University of Oklahoma.

Mary Smith and Gloria Graham, Kappa Theta Sorority members, recently visited Belmont Abbey College in Charlotte, North Carolina, to attend their Spring Formal. They were guests of John Trott and Paul Vesbeck.

Jane Blankenship, Delta Zeta Sorority, will spend the month of June vacationing in Florida.

Claudia Garvin, Delta Zeta Treasurer, leaves from school June 5th to vacation with her parents and Barbara Jean Noland in Florida. They will stay in Daytona, then go on to Lake George for fishing.

Gene Jernigan, former member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity at Davidson College, now a student at Georgia State and member of the "G" Club, is engaged to Miss Jan Earing, a student nurse at Grady Hospital, who graduates Sept., 1959. The wedding will be July 11th at the North Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Judy Kentey, Delta Zeta Sorority member, is pinned to Mike Martin, Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity at Georgia Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bowden are the parents of a baby boy who was born May 2nd, and named Richard William. Bowden is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and the "G" Club.

Alpha Phi pledge Eleanor Mitchell, sweetheart of TKE at Georgia Tech, is pinned to Bill Osterstrut, a TKE.

Mary Frances Sikes, Alpha Phi, is going steady with Adrian Parish, a Sigma Nu at Georgia State.

Five Alpha Phi's went to Tallahassee, Fla. for the installation of Gamma Phi chapter of Alpha Phi at Florida State University. The Georgia State Alpha Phi's were in charge of a large part of the initiation services. Georgia State Alpha Phi's who attended were Annette Pinyan, Charlene Haggard, Linda Hartz, Charlotte Denman, and Joan Butler.

NEW CHAPTER—James W. Bradley, past-regent of Sigma Nu, right, with a charter officially installing Sigma Alpha Nu fraternity at Georgia State College as Sigma Nu. Sigma Nu is a national social fraternity. The installation took place at Georgia State on May 17.

Sigma Nu Fraternity Installs Eta Gamma Chapter Here

Sigma Alpha Nu, a local fraternity at Georgia State College, was formally installed as the Eta Gamma Chapter of the Sigma Nu national social fraternity on Sunday, May 17. Simultaneously and in conjunction with the installation, 35 brothers and five alumni of Sigma Alpha Nu were initiated as the charter members of the new Sigma Nu chapter.

The installation and initiation ceremonies were conducted at Georgia State by the Xi Chapter from Emory University.

A reception and banquet followed the ceremonies. Some of the guests in attendance included Richard R. Fletcher, executive secretary of Sigma Nu who served as master of ceremonies; Robert L. Marchman, III, past commander of Division Nine, Sigma Nu fraternity; Floyd Harris, present commander of Division Nine, which consists of the five Sigma Nu chapters in the State of Georgia.

Georgia State College officials who attended the ceremonies included President Noah Langdale, Jr., Dean of Students William M. Suttles, Dean of Women Nell H. Trotter, Dean of Men Kenneth England, and Commander Thomas H. Rentz, the faculty advisor to Sigma Alpha Nu who introduced the officers of the Eta Gamma Chapter.

James W. Bradley, past regent of Sigma Nu, presented the National Charter of Eta Gamma Chapter to J. D. Caswell, commander of the Eta Gamma Chapter.

Dean of Students William M. Suttles introduced the principal speaker, who was Allen Woodall, regent-at-large, University of Georgia.

James W. Bradley, past regent of Sigma Nu, presented the National Charter of Eta Gamma Chapter to J. D. Caswell, commander of the Eta Gamma Chapter.

Delta Zeta Holds Fashion Show for Mothers May 12

Delta Zeta held a fashion show in the Little Theater Tuesday, May 12th. Carolyn Lee did the coordination and commentary for the show.

The clothes were from Franwyllie's in Buckhead and all the model's hair was styled by the House of Howard, Peggy Berleson, who is the daughter of the owner of the shop, helped Carolyn with the coordination.

The sorority entertained their mothers at the show. The models were all members of Delta Zeta and have previously modeled professionally. They were: Jane Blankenship, Jane Knowlton, Joyce Pickett, Joyce Yerkes, Linda Pearson, Linda Rogers, Myra Phillips, Jackie Healan, Sandra May, and Judy Kentey.

MODELING—Myra Phillips, right, models a swim suit during the recent fashion show which was sponsored by Delta Zeta sorority. Mothers of the members of the sorority were guests at the show. Miss Peggy Burleson, of Franwyllie's, left, was co-ordinator of the show.

Beverly Roberts Named Sweetheart Of AKPsi Frat

Alpha Kappa Psi, commercial fraternity at Georgia State College held their annual spring formal Saturday, May 16.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the new sweetheart and the tapping of the new officers for the 1959-60 year.

Beverly Roberts, a sophomore at Georgia State College and a member of Kappa Theta sorority was crowned the new sweetheart.

The new officers are president, Tom Sangster; vice president J. D. Caswell; recording secretary, George B. Adams; corresponding secretary, Frank Duke; treasurer, James Warren; and master of rituals, Harrison Jackson.

"The Twelfthers," an Atlanta combo played for the dance.

SWEETHEART—Miss Beverly Roberts, member of Kappa Theta sorority, was recently named the 1959-60 Sweetheart of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional fraternity at Georgia State. The announcement of the new sweetheart was made at Alpha Kappa Psi's Knights of Columbus Ball held May 17. Thomas Sangster is president of the fraternity.

Baptist Student Unions Hold Banquet May 15

Baptist Student Unions in the Atlanta area held a banquet.

It was at the First Baptist Church in Atlanta, May 15, at 6:30 p.m. The dress for the occasion was semi-formal.

Tickets were $1, and were obtained from Mike McGlon, Pat McGlon, and other Baptist Student Union officers.

The banquet hall was decorated along the theme of the "Old South."

A minstrel show provided entertainment. Johnny Jones and Eugenia Rice, Georgia State College students, were in the show.

Hoyt Farr, pastor of the First Baptist church in Forest Park, closed the banquet with an inspirational message.

Alpha Phi Holds First Alumni Day

Alpha Phi, social sorority at Georgia State, celebrated Alumni Day on May 18. This was the first Alumni Day held by the Georgia State chapter.

All alumni of the Atlanta chapter were invited. The guests were taken on a tour of the building and were honored at a tea in the chapter room.

Alpha Phi hopes to make Alumni Day a tradition at Georgia State, said Phyllis Christie, vice president of the sorority.

Bill Carman Named New President of GSC Newman Club

The Newman Club, organization for Catholic students, held elections for the 1959-60 school year officers on Sunday, May 3.

Officers are president, Bill Carman, Jr.; vice president, Linda Hartz; secretary, Mary Kate Riha; and treasurer, Otto Hertwig.

Father Giles Anthony Webster is the Chaplain. Faculty advisors for the Newman Club are Dr. Stephen Paranka, Dr. Kenneth Black and Mr. Kenneth U. Flood.

The organization had a Parents Day program on Sunday, May 17.

Following the banquet, the Eta Gamma Chapter had an orientation meeting with Richard R. Fletcher, executive secretary of Sigma Nu.

In the morning before the installation and initiation ceremonies, the brothers and pledges of the fraternity attended the 11:00 a.m. worship service at Atlanta's First Baptist Church.

Where...
Quality Printing
Is Yours...

ANNOUNCEMENTS
BUSINESS STATIONERY
INVITATIONS
PERSONAL STATIONERY
PLACARDS
CALLING CARDS

New Era Publishing Co.
128 Atlanta Avenue DRake 3-5785

THINKKLISH

English: LOWEST MAN IN THE COMMENCEMENT CLASS
Thinklish translation: The only courses this bird absorbed were the ones served in dining hall. The only examinations he passed were the ones his dentist gave him twice a year. After five years of work (at a two-year college), he finally got his diploma. Obviously, the word for this fellow is graduate! Of course, being a Lucky fan marks him as a man of high degree... with extra credits for good taste. Get the honest taste of fine tobacco yourself. Spend this summa cum Luckies.

English: CALORIE CHART
Thinklish: FATALOGUE
 ROBERT ROSENTHAL, U. OF MICHIGAN

English: WANDERING HORSE
Thinklish: NAGABOND
 FRANCIS HAAS, ST. BONAVENTURE U.

English: CIGARETTE COMMERCIAL
Thinklish: TOBACCOLADE
 CALVIN MCCONNELL, U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY

English: ANGRY JAPANESE
Thinklish: SORIENTAL
 V. E. MOORE, U. S. C.

HOW TO MAKE $25

Take a word—magazine, for example. With it, you can make a burglar's weekly (swagazine), a liars' club bulletin (bragazine), a mountain-climbing gazette (cragazine) and a pin-up periodical (stagazine). That's Thinklish—and it's that easy! We're paying $25 for the Thinklish words judged best—your check is itching to go! Send your words to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Enclose name, address, college and class.

Get the genuine article
 Get the honest taste of a LUCKY STRIKE

Product of The American Tobacco Company—Tobacco is our middle name

JOIN YOUR FRIENDS — ENJOY

Pocket Billiards — Snooker and Tasty Food in Club Like Surroundings At

Big Town Recreation Billiards

"One of America's finest"

At Five Points — Upstairs — 10½ Edgewood Ave.

Alpha Lambda Delta Initiates Largest Group Since 1955

Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honorary sorority for freshman women, recently initiated the largest number of freshman women since it was established at Georgia State College in 1955.

Twenty-four women students were formally initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta May 20, in the Conference Room at Georgia State College.

Ten of the initiates were nursing students. Initiates in the school of nursing are Beverly Adams, Carol Bell, Bernice Brown, Carolyn Dolittle, Judy Evans, Barbara Sue Hamilton, Anne Hughes, Lynda McSwain, Linda Sanders, and Ellen Williams.

Other Alpha Lambda Delta initiates are Mrs. Louise E. Agnew, Betty Burnett, Naomi Corley, Dorothy Douglas, Margaret Friend, Mrs. Edna H. Hitchins, Quinith Hulse, Judy Loeb, Clara Stoks, Annette Thompson, Mary Frances Vaughn, Linda Ward, Irma Webb, and Laurie Wilkes.

Membership in Alpha Lambda Delta is open to all freshman women who maintain a B+ average for 15 hours for two quarters or 10 hours at night for three quarters.

A banquet followed the initiation. Miss Sara Eugenia Jones, a former student of Georgia State College, was the feature speaker at the banquet. Miss Jones is a former member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Crimson Key honorary sororities for women. She was the top honor graduate at Georgia State College in 1956. The topic of her speech was "Planning Our Tomorrows." The banquet was held in the Faculty Lounge.

New officers for next year also were announced at the meeting. The new officers are Clara Stokes, president; Laurie Wilkes, vice-president; Annette Thompson, treasurer; Linda Ward, historian; and Phyllis Christie, senior advisor.

Alpha Lambda Delta was founded in 1924 and was established at Georgia State College in 1955.

Sigma Nu Formal Dance Held May 23

Eta Gamma Chapter of Sigma Nu at Georgia State held their first annual "White Star" formal at Meadowbrook Country Club Saturday night, May 23.

The dance was Eta Gamma's first formal since receiving their charter from Sigma Nu on May 17, and was the big celebration following the installation. The music was furnished by the "Twilighters" from the University of Georgia.

Highlight of the evening was the announcement of the new officers and sweetheart of Sigma Nu. The officers were as follows: commander, Don Mitcham; Lt. commander, Bob Daws; recorder, Baxter Jones; treasurer, Curtis Hester; chaplain, George Adams; reporter, March Miller; marshal, Ed Tinnerman; assistant treasurer, Sam Turner; alumni contact officer, Jimmy Jones; sentinel, Harris McLendon; and historian, George Weber.

The new sweetheart of Sigma Nu is Miss Penny Hill, who is Delta Zeta and a Sophomore in the school of Art and Sciences.

The guests included members of Sigma Nu from Xi Chapter at Emory; Gamma Alpha Chapter at Georgia Tech; Mr. Floyd Harris, Sigma Nu Division Commander; Mrs. Dale Miller, guest of honor; and Linda Brown, president-elect of the day Student Council and her escort.

National Sororities Interested in GSC

Several national sororities have indicated a desire to form chapters at Georgia State College, said Mrs. Nell Trotter, Dean of Women.

All women students interested in joining a new organization should see Mrs. Trotter.

Early Registration Held Here May 20

Early registration was held at Georgia State College on Wednesday, May 20.

Students registered from 9:30 a. m. until 8 p. m. in the Student Lounge at the College.

Regular registration will be held on Monday, June 15.

Junior-Senior Dance Held May 8

The annual Georgia State College Junior-Senior Dance was held this year in the student lounge.

The dance, held on May 8, was preceded by a reception in honor of the graduating seniors.

Frances White, vice-president of the day junior class, and the other junior and senior officers, received the seniors in the faculty lounge, where refreshments were served.

Music for the dance was provided by the Spades, a local combo. Decorations for the dance were carried out in oriental motif. Perle Mossman, chairman of decorations for the dance, said the oriental flavor was achieved by the use of Japanese lanterns and fans. The oriental atmosphere was further advanced by the appearance of a grotesque hand-painted dragon which decorated the rear of the band stand.

SABRINA FAIR—The Players, Georgia State drama group, presented the Broadway play Sabrina Fair here May 20-23. Several members of the cast were, from left to right, Jean Middlebrooks, Sylvia Kaufman, Dan Reeves, Bob Lancaster and Mary Panka. The play was presented in the Little Theatre which is located on the sixth floor of the Ivy St. building.

Kappa Sigs Take Part in 'National Help Week'

Kappa Sigma, social fraternity at Georgia State College, participated in the national organization's "National Help Week."

Twenty-five fraternity members were at the Courtenay drive children's home from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturday, May 9. The boys cut grass, washed windows, cleaned out the swimming pool, and did other general maintenance work.

Epsilon Omega chapter of Kappa Sigma chapter at Georgia State is only one of the many chapters in the national organization that did such work during the fraternity's "National Help Week."

SAN's Attend 75th Anniversary of Emory Sigma Nu's

On Saturday, May 16, several Sigma Alpha Nu's attended the 75th anniversary banquet of the Xi Chapter of Sigma Nu at Emory University. The next day, May 17, Xi Chapter installed SAN as the Eta Gamma Chapter of Sigma Nu.

OUTSTANDING MEMBER—Boyd Duncan, left, receives the General Council Outstanding Member Award for this year. Dr. William M. Suttles, dean of students, makes the presentation. Duncan was president of General Council for the 1958-59 college year. The award was made at the Honors Night Banquet held at the Atlanta Athletic Club on May 6.

Christie Gets Panhellenic Award Here

Miss Phyllis Christie, member of Alpha Phi, has been awarded the Georgia State College Panhellenic Award.

The award is a $150 scholarship to be used for tuition at the College. The scholarship is awarded annually by the Atlanta Panhellenic Council.

Applications for the scholarship are judged on the basis of outstanding scholarship, leadership, and contribution to the College.

Miss Christie is a member of Alpha Phi, social sorority at Georgia State. She was treasurer of Alpha Phi for the 1958-1959 year. She was recently elected vice president in charge of pledges for the 1959-1960 year.

She was also president of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary society for freshmen and sophomore women. She was recently initiated into Crimson Key, national honorary society for junior and senior women. She was also a delegate to the Panhellenic Council and Student Council at Georgia State.

Miss Christie is a junior in the School of Business Administration.

Annual Panhellenic Workshop Held Here May 16

Georgia State's third annual Panhellenic Workshop was held in the conference room on May 16. The program began at 9:45 a. m. Present were representatives from Alpha Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Delta Zeta Sororities. Delta Lambda Sigma and Kappa Theta, local sororities, held their workshop in the public relations foyer.

Claire Dempsey, 1958-59 president of the Panhellenic, gave a summary of the year's activities. Mrs. Nell H. Trotter, Dean of Women, gave greetings to those attending.

Highlights of the year were given by the representatives. Phyllis Christie gave the rush advisers' report; Claire Dempsey and Mrs. Eva Whetstone, Southeastern Panhellenic Workshop report; Toni McGlone, rush procedures and discussion of Handbook; Vesta Mauldin, Orientation plans and rush forms for Panhellenic's use.

After a lunch period, the new constitution and rush rules were presented. This was followed by the installation of new officers. Panhellenic's new officers are Carolyn Lee, Delta Zeta, president; Judy Carter, Alpha Phi, vice president; Perle Mossman, Delta Phi Epsilon, secretary; Vesta Mauldin, Alpha Omicron Pi, treasurer.

CONGRATULATIONS—Miss Marcelle Cartee is the new Sweetheart of Kappa Sigma fraternity. The announcement was made at the Annual Kappa Sigma Black and White Dance, held May 6. John Cowart, left, past grand master of Kappa Sig, and Harold Riggs, right, the new grand master, congratulate Miss Cartee upon being chosen sweetheart of the fraternity.

Ever Wonder Why Students Come to College on Sunday?

Fourteen hours a day, five days a week, plus Saturdays, are not enough for some Georgia State College students. They come to school on Sunday also.

In answer to the question, "What are YOU doing at school on a Sunday?" four out of the ten interviewed gave the expected answer, "studying." Three were there to use library materials.

The others said they were at school to learn (1) fraternity songs (2) work, and (3) feed rats.

A junior who is at Georgia State from 9 to 12 hours a day during the week had to come in Sunday to feed the rats in the psychology lab.

"I'm working today as usual" was the answer by one of the students who give up their Sundays so that the library may be staffed.

One day student had come in merely because there was "nothing to do at home." Apparently he did not find anything to do at school either because he was on his way out to his car to go seek excitement elsewhere.

A check of Georgia State's miniature "fraternity row" revealed one business administration student who had come in to learn fraternity songs at a time when the bongo drums were silent.

Another fraternity man was "just gonna read some stuff I was supposed to read last week."

A hopeful graduating senior taking 20 hours this quarter was working on a term report in the library "because it was raining today anyway."

Also in the library was a history major who stopped studying long enough to say playfully, "Me? I'm trying to impress my teachers."

But the saddest tale of the LSSAS (Let's Spend Sunday at School) club began: "Well, it's like this—I have a test Monday night. I had a test last Monday night too, and when I got it back, it was bad. So . . ."

Sigma Alpha Nu Has Last Party May 2

The final party held by Sigma Alpha Nu before going Sigma Nu on May 17 was a hamburger fry which was attended by brothers, pledges, wives, and dates. The party was held at Ed Friend's cabin on May 2.

During the party, Sigma Alpha Nu Commander J. D. Caswell presented Carol Tiner a high-fi record album from the fraternity for serving as pianist for Sigma Alpha Nu's first-place Greek Week IFC Sing Group, which was directed by Boyd Duncan.

GREEN TIP RESTAURANT

(FORMERLY SAM SALTZMAN'S)

33 EDGEWOOD AVE.

FINE FOOD Ja. 4-9389 CUBAN BOBOYS

PRIVATE MEETING ROOMS

Student Rates

7 A.M.-2 P.M. ----- 25c
7 A.M.-3 P.M. ----- 35c
All Day ----- 50c

Watt's Parking Lots

Corner Ivy and Decatur Corner Decatur and Collins

A new idea in smoking!

Salem refreshes your taste

CREATED BY R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

- * menthol fresh
- * rich tobacco taste
- * modern filter, too

Perfect Spring days are all too few . . . but you can always enjoy a Salem Cigarette . . . and a Salem refreshes your taste just as Spring refreshes you. Yes, the freshest taste in cigarettes flows through Salem's pure white filter. Rich tobacco taste with a new surprise softness. That's Salem . . . You'll love 'em!

Smoke Salem... Smoke Refreshed

SIGNAL EDITORIALS

Comments On Board Of Regents Annual Report

Twice during the past academic year the Signal has questioned editorially the apportionment of state funds spent for higher education.

Prior editorial comments have been based only on information gathered from monthly Board of Regents meetings. The Signal pointed out that in the Atlanta Journal issue of July 9, 1958, the paper reported that J. H. Dewberry, director of plant and business operations for the University System, had submitted a report summarizing the amounts of money needed for capital improvement at each college in the University System.

The Signal pointed out that the report called for 4 million dollars for Georgia State College, 18.8 million dollars for the University of Georgia and 13.8 million dollars for Georgia Tech. This would mean that the University of Georgia was to receive more than four times as much money as Georgia State College and that Georgia Tech was to receive more than three times as much money.

The Signal also pointed out that in spite of this wide deviation in the proposed apportionment of money the enrollment of these colleges is about the same.

Also in the same report by Regent Dewberry, Georgia State College was to have received "2,500,000 dollars during the coming year for a multi-purpose building."

The Signal raised the question of what had happened to the proposed "2,500,000" for a multi-purpose building. No one has yet answered the question.

Recently, as is customary each year, the Signal received the annual report from the Board of Regents outlining the progress of the University System and its institutions. The report also includes a thorough and complete resume of allocations of state monies to colleges in the University System. A lot of money was spent.

But the Signal believes that Georgia State College did not receive, nor did its employees receive, the monetary consideration that it is due.

The annual report simply verifies the editorial comment published in the April 17, 1959 issue of the Signal. At this time the Signal stated that Georgia State College received less money to live up to a precedent of doing more than any other college in the University System. Figures published in the Regents annual report provide an eloquent argument in defense of this statement.

Couched among the notations of other allocations of monies to other colleges in the University System are statements of monetary expenditures which should make every Georgia State professor, administrator and student indignant.

Picked out of the text of the Regents annual report and placed on paper in comparison to allocations of money received by the Georgia Institute of Technology and the University of Georgia, the figures are a stark testimony to the vast gulf of difference in the amounts of state assistance rendered to both Georgia and Tech in comparison to Georgia State College.

The following are some comparisons of figures quoted in the 1957-58 annual Report by the Board of Regents. The figures cover the period of time ending June 30, 1958.

In the following figures the Georgia Institute of Technology and the University of Georgia will be used in comparison with Georgia State because these are the only two colleges in the system which have comparable enrollment with Georgia State.

The Signal would like to make it clear at this point that we realize each college has different needs and we also point out that we have taken into consideration that Georgia State College is not a campus college in the strictest sense of the word and that we have no dormitories. We do not believe these differences in the three colleges account for the tremendous difference in state assistance given Georgia State in comparison to the other two.

The Signal believes that one of the most glaring differences apparently overlooked by the Regents is the difference in faculty salaries at Georgia State in comparison with the University of Georgia and Georgia Tech. Under the table for average salaries of faculty members the report revealed that: faculty salaries at Georgia Tech average $6,049 a year; at the University of Georgia $5,741, and at Georgia State College $5,247. This means Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia professors receive $802 and $494 more respectively per year than Georgia State College professors.

But the picture is not yet complete. Besides receiving an inferior salary Georgia State College professors had an average work load of 304 quarter credit hours per quarter as opposed to a 251 hour workload per professor at the University of Georgia and a 265 hour work load at Georgia Tech.

Since we are using the allocations of state extended benefits to the University of Georgia and Georgia Tech as a comparison to point out the small amount of state assistance rendered to this institution the Signal feels that a comparison of the services rendered by each school is required to validate the comparison.

To begin with, the average quarterly enrollment at Georgia State during the past fiscal year was 4,879 students compared to 5,300 students at Georgia Tech and 5,524 students at the University of Georgia.

These figures indicate that both Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia had a slightly larger per quarter enrollment than Georgia State but a look at the cumulative enrollments of the three institutions reveal a different picture.

Georgia State College had a total cumulative enrollment for the fiscal year of 7,335 students as opposed to 6,552 students at Georgia Tech and 6,686 students at the University of Georgia. Cumulative enrollment means the number of different students who registered during the year. The 7,335 figure at Georgia State does not mean this many students registered during any one quarter but does indicate that 7,335 different students registered during the fiscal year. In this phase of enrollment Georgia State College tops both Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia.

Bearing in mind that the number of students served by Georgia State approximates the enrollment at Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia the Signal asks that the Georgia State student body take particular notice of the figures to follow, which are quoted from the Board of Regents' annual report.

Under total amounts of state money allocated to the three colleges Georgia State received $1,308,050. Georgia Tech received $5,619,000, and the University of Georgia received $6,633,785. According to these figures Georgia Tech received over four times as much money as Georgia State College and the University of Georgia received over five times as much money. Students, look at the comparative enrollment figures again!

To further point out the low sum of money received at Georgia State College in terms of service rendered the Signal would like to point out the amount of state monies tendered to Albany State College. With an average enrollment of 520 students per quarter, Albany State College was allotted $655,000.

Georgia State College which has approximately nine times as large a student body per quarter was allotted only a little over twice as much money for operation during the past fiscal year.

Under state allocations per full time student (50 quarter hours during the academic year) Georgia State College received 333 dollars per student as compared to 401 dollars per student at Georgia Tech and 558 dollars per student at the University of Georgia.

In the table indicating expenditures per full time student for a nine month period figures denote that it cost the state 500 dollars to provide educational facilities for the Georgia State student, 787 dollars for the Georgia Tech student and 760 dollars for the University of Georgia student. Again figures proved that Georgia State is providing the state with a more economical set-up than either Georgia Tech or the University of Georgia.

In view of this fact the Signal fails to comprehend the reasoning behind the following report on state allocations of funds allocated for buildings for the three colleges. Georgia State students, take particular note of these figures!

During the last fiscal year under authorization of the Board of Regents 1,045,000 dollars was spent for building at Georgia Tech and 924,731 dollars was spent for buildings at the University of Georgia. Not one penny was spent for new buildings at Georgia State College.

In the past fiscal year construction was begun on several buildings at both Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia. For these purposes 2,846,786 dollars was appropriated for Georgia Tech and 11,900,334.25 dollars for the University of Georgia. No money was appropriated and no building begun at Georgia State College during the past fiscal year. The Signal would also like to point out that none of these buildings under construction during the past year are for dormitory purposes.

It cannot be argued then that it is because we do not have dormitories that we do not receive money for buildings. All of the buildings that were begun at Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia were for purposes other than dormitories.

Both Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia had several buildings in the planning stage during the 1957-58 fiscal year. For these purposes the Regents appropriated 11,510,850 dollars for Georgia Tech and 4,044,450 dollars for the University of Georgia. No buildings were in the planning stage for Georgia State College and no money appropriated. And these facts in view of the crying need for a multi-purpose building here to provide a place for our student body to meet en masse and to provide a replacement for our gymnasium which was condemned in winter quarter 1957.

Much has been said about providing a multi-purpose building for this college, but at the present date, almost a year since the period of time covered in this annual report, Georgia State College still has no definite promise of a construction date for a multi-purpose building.

In the front section of the report the new degrees and programs that have been initiated here in the last few years are summarized. This is about the only section of the report which looks favorable for Georgia State College. For the added degree programs (which we will not summarize here because most of the students are familiar with them)

MARTHA FREE

Across the Bridge at Andau '... Fled the Soul of a Nation'

If ever I am fortunate enough to visit the country of Hungary, I hope I shall be able to stand, for a few moments, on the Bridge at Andau.

James A. Michener, a Pulitzer-prize-winning novelist, wrote a book titled "The Bridge at Andau" and it was from reading his book that I learned of the importance of the bridge.

In his book Michener tells the story of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution as he saw it and as he learned of it from Hungarian refugees who were a part of the rebellion against Communist rule in Hungary.

Michener tells of the courage and of the devotion of the young people in Hungary to their country.

Even the children of Hungary took part in the revolution. Michener tells of a young Hungarian boy running down a street toward Russian tanks with only a gasoline bomb for a weapon.

A HUNGARIAN mother and father tell how they educate their children at night so that they might know the truth and will not believe the lies taught to them in Communist schools.

When the Hungarian revolution failed, many of its citizens escaped to Austria. More than 20,000 people fled across the bridge at Andau into Austria and freedom.

As one reads "The Bridge at Andau" he feels that he is standing at the Bridge himself watching the refugees fleeing their homeland to find their long-sought-for freedom.

Michener tells the stories of many of the refugees who went across the Bridge at Andau into Austria. Michener said: "It was truly said of the refugees, 'Each man who crossed the border is a novel; any ten men comprise an epic.'"

Of the bridge itself, Michener writes: "There was a bridge at Andau, and if a Hungarian could reach that bridge, he was nearly free."

IT WASN'T MUCH, as bridges go; not wide enough for a car nor sturdy enough to bear a motorcycle; it was a footbridge made of rickety boards with a handrail which little children could not quite reach.

we are thankful.

But the Signal feels that our college could be likened to a leaky overcrowded ship bound on a voyage of undetermined length. The Regents have opened the locks and more or less cast us out on a large sea of educational opportunity. But our vessel is leaky and overcrowded and in bad need of repairs.

The Signal fully believes that it is almost entirely within the power of the Board of Regents to say whether our ship will be fitted for the voyage that they have directed. Our sister colleges have no handicap of inferior equipment.

Carrying on with the analogy we still have the adequate crew (faculty and students) and the opportunity is there but we need state assistance for expansion and renovation of equipment.

The Signal sincerely hopes that the facts published in this editorial will evoke the indignation of the students and of the faculty. We do not know what can be done except ask the Regents to give Georgia State more consideration. But we justify this editorial with one quote: "It is better to strike one match than to curse the darkness."

Veterans Viewpoint

BY MEL STOUT

Here is a special note of interest to those veterans not intending to return to school for the Summer Quarter. You are to report to the Veterans Office to complete a form for the five days you attend class in June. This is necessary to prevent any complications when you next desire to return to school. There will be an example posted in the usual place on the bulletin board to follow. Please attend to this matter after you have completed your last final.

Those veterans currently in attendance and intending to return for the Summer Quarter will not report in after their last final but instead will come in on the appropriate day during the first of July to sign up the two portions of June (the end of the Spring Quarter). Examples will be as usual be posted on the bulletin boards.

If there are any questions concerning the above they may be directed either to Mrs. Muklow or Mel Stout in the Veterans Office.

CLARA STOKES

Education Is the Bulwark Of a Workable Democracy

Empty classrooms — deserted hallways — those were the things I noticed as I walked through Georgia State College late one Friday night.

As I walked down the lonely, dark hallways one thought went through my mind — "What if Georgia State were empty like this all the time?"

I passed the library and thought of the knowledge that can be gained with just a few hours reading there. But what good is a closed library?

I looked at the empty classrooms and thought of the importance of each room. I thought of how much could be learned by students who attend lectures in those classrooms. Classrooms are probably the backbone of every school. But what good is an empty classroom.

The library, the classrooms, the laboratories — all of these make up a school. And schools are instruments of education. Therefore, what would happen to education if there were no schools.

Education is not something that can be taken without dealing a devastating blow. The future of a country depends on the education of its leaders. A nation is what the people make it. An uneducated nation will not thrive long. Progress would come to a complete standstill. This being true, the survival of a nation would be doubtful.

Education is one of the most important factors in a democracy. The right to learn should be given to anyone who lives in a country where freedom is the motto.

By destroying education, every fundamental principal upon which freedom is built would also be destroyed. Freedom consists of the right to think and choose, but man's mind must be cultivated properly if he is to make the right decisions.

Man must learn to use the full capacity of his intelligence and imagination. Education is one of the best ways to help man use those capacities.

Students go to college because they have chosen to do so. They have exercised the freedom of choice which is supposed to be one of the principals in a democratic way of life.

100 Honored

Approximately 100 students received recognition on Honors Day at Georgia State College.

The students were cited for the outstanding scholarship in college. This recognition was only obtained through many hours of hard work. It was given to those students who were interested enough in an education to be willing to work for it.

The students who received recognition on Honors Day should be congratulated. They uphold the high standard of scholarship that Georgia State College stands for.

Those students have recognized the value of education. Perhaps they, have used the motto, "You get out of something just what you put into it."

That motto can be applied to college. The student who is willing to work and try to learn will probably receive the best education.

Scholarship is important to education. The students who received recognition on Honors Day for their scholarship have already realized the importance of scholarship in education.

ROD SPICER

Through the Front Door A Park, the Back A Slum

In the heart of downtown Atlanta nestled among tall modern buildings, a park, and a slum, stands an institution of learning. An institution to which the unflattering title "two-faced" can be truthfully applied, at least in one sense.

The building spoken of houses Georgia State College. The college is "two-faced" because a passerby or a student observing the building from Washington street or Gilmer street would be greeted by the fresh functional appearance of a modern building. Across Washington street a modern fire station with well kept grounds takes nothing from the appearance of neatness of the Washington street facade of Georgia State College. Looking out of the college president's office onto Gilmer street, one of the city's truly beautiful parks is in view. This is the front door of Georgia State College and also one of the "two faces" of the College.

Anyone who uses the parking lot or enters the college by way of Decatur street is greeted by quite a different view. Entering by the "back door" one observes that Georgia State College shows her "other face" to the Negro denizens of slums on Decatur street. The backs of the stores facing on Decatur street are in a direct line of view of any person entering the Georgia State College parking lot. The backs of these stores which are the homes of many Negro families are one of the ugliest slums in Atlanta.

IT WOULD seem that such a record of achievement should be recognized by the Board of Regents and that the physical facilities and grounds be improved.

Growth and internal improvements, such as an excellent faculty and the inception of new degree programs have long since taken the college to the point where new physical facilities are necessary.

We have been and are handicapped severely by the lack of a gymnasium or a building to house the student body en masse.

Add to this the cheap slum-like appearance of much of the adjacent property and we see indeed that we operate in an environment that is not conducive to creating a feeling of "pride" from the students or faculty here.

We are the ragged urchin of the University System, expected and doing a man's work but dressed in the suit of poverty and squalor.

It is absurd, at a time when there is a dire need for more and better colleges, to stifle the potential of an established college whose services are sorely needed. And Georgia State College is being stifled by the absence of state funds to provide needed buildings and improvements here.

I BELIEVE each member of the Board of Regents is a capable businessman who has proven his ability time and again or else he would not hold the high office he now holds. But I cannot understand why, in view of all the facts, the Regents continue to overlook the needs of a college which has proven its usefulness. And proven this on a veritable shoe-string budget.

I cannot question the members of the Board of Regents in their business sense, but I do question their judgment. The reasons why Georgia State College has not received more state assistance is in the mind of each Regent. I hope this reasoning is not colored by prejudice.

A breakdown of some of the allocation of funds for building purposes for colleges in the University System is contained in an editorial in the left hand columns of this page.

These figures point up the vast gulf of difference in the amount of state assistance rendered Georgia State as compared to her sister colleges.

Georgia State Signal

Table listing staff members and their roles: ROD SPICER - Editor, MARTHA FREE - Managing Editor, CLARA STOKES - News Editor, CAROLYN CLARK - Society Editor, FAYE WESTBROOK - Business Manager, GERRY CHATHAM - Sports Editor, BENNETT COLLINS - Photographer, BILLIE MCKENZIE - Advertising Manager, JEFF LYNCH - Cartoonist, BILL CHAPMAN - Circulation Manager, STAFF: Miriam Tutt, Anne Bruner, Geraldine Carson, Linda Ward, Theresa Ray, Hideko Kato, George Lee, Richard Wilson, Ann Kelly, Berle Mossman, Marilyn Riley, Julia Anne Manos, Suzanne Perckholz, Mel Stout, ADVISOR: Dr. Dozier C. Cade.

LETTERS

Noise in Library Annoying

EDITOR'S NOTE: Letters to the editor will be printed if the letters are confined to 250 words or less and meet requirements of good taste.

Editor, Georgia State Signal
SUBJECT: An open letter to the students of Georgia State College:

One of the greatest problems in our Library today is that of noise. Unfortunately, part of the problem is due to the poor physical arrangement of the room; something about which we are unable to do anything at the present. The greatest part of the problem, however, is due to the fact that many students use the Library as a social gathering place or as a place to work in groups.

Actually, the talking of one person to another in a low voice is not something that is necessarily distracting as such. It is, rather, conversation of a number of such persons which go to make up an overall disturbing factor. We should like to ask your cooperation, therefore, in making our Library a quiet place in which anyone can come and work undisturbed by asking you not to converse with your friends or work in groups while in the Library. If you wish to talk, will you kindly do so in another part of the building.

Anyone not cooperating in this matter will be asked to leave the Library.

WILLIAM R. PULLEN
 Librarian

4 Ga. State Professors Receive Fellowships

Four professors from the School of Business Administration of Georgia State College have received fellowships for summer 1959. They are Dr. James E. Chapman, chairman, department of management; Dr. Leland C. Whetten, department of accounting; Dr. Willy's R. Knight, director of the bureau of business and economic research; and Dr. Anthony Stampolis, professor of political economy, department of economics.

Cade Helps Judge National Alumni Magazine Contest

Dr. Dozier C. Cade, director of public relations at Georgia State College, helped judge the annual national alumni magazine competition for this year.

The judging was held at Emory University, May 15-16. It was held in the South for the first time.

Serving as judges were Mrs. Mary Johnson Tweedy, director of education, Time, Inc.; John J. Walklet, Jr., director of publications for Colonial Williamsburg; Richard Joel, professor of advertising, Florida State University; Margaret Long, Atlanta Journal columnist and novelist; John S. McKenzie, vice president, Higgins-McArthur company, Atlanta; and Dr. Cade.

Randolph Fort, editor of the Emory Alumnus (which did not enter the contest), is director of publications for the American Alumni Council. Mrs. Jean Dinwoody Linehan, in charge of publications activities for the AAC, assisted Mr. Fort in arrangements for the judging.

Dr. Chapman has been a professor at Georgia State since 1951. He will be attending the 19th Summer Case Seminar Program from June 14 through August 7 which will be held at Harvard University. The program is sponsored by the Ford Foundation. Dr. Chapman received his Ph.D. from the University of Alabama.

Dr. Whetten has been a professor at Georgia State since 1951. He will be attending the Finance Forum in New York city from June 15 through July 3. He has his Ph.D. from the University of Alabama.

Dr. Knight, professor of economics, will be participating in the Ford Foundation Sponsored Seminar at Chapel Hill in North Carolina from June 28 through August 23. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Maryland.

Dr. Stampolis has been teaching at Georgia State since September 1957. He received the 1958 Fellowship-in-Business sponsored by the Foundation for Economic Education. He will be at the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York city during this summer. He received his Ph.D. from Harvard University.

GSC Placement Office Moves to Ivy Street Building

The Placement Office at Georgia State College has been moved to the Ivy Street entrance of the old building.

Before moving, the office was located at the Courtland Street entrance of the new building of the college.

The Placement Office obtains jobs for Georgia State students and alumni.

HONORS DAY—Dr. William G. Pollard, left, congratulates Shelia Manning, Fred W. Lyon, Jr., and Andrew Tampa for receiving Honors Day awards. Dr. Pollard, executive director Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, was the speaker at the Honors Day assembly. Miss Manning received the Alpha Lambda Delta Award and the W. S. Kell Award. Lyon was presented the Phi Eta Sigma Award. Andrew Tampa received the Dean's Key award from the School of Business and the Delta Sigma Pi Scholarship Key award. Honors Day assembly was held in the student lounge.

Graduation List

(Continued from Page 1)

Edmunds, Carmon W. Elliott, James Winifred Ewing, Lowell Demell Fambrough, Robert Howell Ferguson, Donald Burton Field, Ira Fischman, Thomas Lee Foster, Jr., Savilla Chrystelle Freeman, Dudley William Garrett, Jr., William Alexander Garrett, William Henry Gentry, Rita Estelle Gilham, Jimmy H. Goddard.

Harold Earl Goocher, James Richard Graham, Randolph Page Griffin, Albert Gray Griffith, James Richard Gross, Allen Wofford Hairston, Huey Loyd Hammond, Lawrence Frank Hanington, Godfrey Pierce Hardin, Robert Franklin Harmon, Robert Neal Harrelson, and Charles A. Harrington, Jr.

Robert Clyde Harris, J. Carl Harrison, Harold B. Harrison, Jacqueline Hayes, Jerry Wainfield Head, John Carson Henderson, Wimley Fred Hemdon, Richard Russell Hightower, James Gray Hill, Ronald Kenneth Hill, David E. Hipps, Winfred James Hively, Charles F. Hodges, Jr., Alton L. Holland.

David Mervan Housend, George E. Huff, Ralph Lewis Hull, Hugh Reid Hutchings, Hollis Eugene Hyde, Ernest Clyde Isanhour, Jr., Ronald E. Jameson, Lyonei Marvin Joffre, Earl Vernie Johnson, Joseph Richard Jones, Bennie C. Jorda, Daniel F. Kane, Clifton Gerald Kemper.

Robert Lee Kenney, Michael Joseph Hill, William Anthony King, John Rufus Kirkland, Clarence Vernon Knight, Donald E. Ladd, Robert Phillip Lancaster, Ralph H. Landress, Harvey Barrington Lawson, Joseph David Lee, Robert Floyd Lee, Melvyn Dean Little, Harry Austin Lomason, II.

Albert William McCleskey, William Brooks McCrorey, Jr., Booby Jack McDaniel, John R. McDaniel, Billy E. McDonald, Herbert Gordon McDonald, Jr., John Howard McHaney, William Anthony McSwain, Ronald J. Maddox, Grant P. Mahan, Edward A. Mahlin, and Charles H. Martin.

Charles Larry Martin, James Lester Martin, Claude William Massey, Harold Lamar Matthews, Stancel LeRoy May, Jr., Raymond Leon Meadows, Norman W. Miles, Donald Wilson Mitcham, Samuel Dean Mobley, Henry Durand Morgan, Jr., James Henderson Murphy, and Harold Enoch Needham.

Joseph A. Orehosky, Howard N. Palmer, Emergence Mary Panka, Richard Eugene Paris, Charlie L. Parker, Jr., George James Patlos, Donald Lester Petersen, William Charles Petty, James Boyce Peyton, Claude F. Pickelsimer, Jr., Charles William Poole, Thomas J. Powell, Jr., Harold Milton Prescott, Jack Leon Proctor, William David Proctor, and Arthur H. Raven, Jr.

Hoke Smith Rawlins, Teddy H. Reep, William Dean Reeves, Kenneth Lyndon Reid, Jacob Remeta Albert Ray Reynolds, Donald R. Ricks, William Rider, Oscar Charles Robbins, Hal C. Robertson, Jr., Wade B. Rothwell, Jr., Robert Wallace Ryals, Larry Faulkner Sailors, Sam Saliba, Henry Thomas Sanders, Jr., Carole Elizabeth Scott, and Wallace Jake Seay.

Elbert G. Shaw, Jr., James Sheats, Jr., Charles Peter Simon, Midas Odell Skelton, David Alvin Smith, Louis Clyde Smith, Jr., Ralph Winford Smith, Thomas Clifton Smith, William Calvin Smith, Robert Dean Snyder, Jack Earl Summers, Kenneth Dean Sunderman, Everett Thomas Suters.

Chester Eudonald Tucker, Jerry Langdon Tye, Roger Earl Underwood, Joseph Warren Van Horn, Robert Walter Walker, John H. Wallace, Jr., Grady Dumas Waters, Richard H. Waters, Clarence

LeCroy Receives Scholarship Award From Paul Cooper

Paul R. Cooper, an honor graduate of Kappa Sigma fraternity, presented to Jerry LeCroy, a Kappa Sigma brother, a scholarship award for the brother with the highest scholastic average. This award was presented at the Kappa Sig Black and White formal recently.

The trophy, a two foot high prize, will be presented annually to the Kappa Sigma brother with the highest scholastic average.

In order for a brother to attain this award he must have been enrolled in Georgia State for at least three quarters prior to the award. He must be an active member in the Georgia State College chapter, and have the highest overall scholastic average in the chapter as of the end of the winter quarter preceding the Black and White Formal.

The three gold stars on the trophy indicate the basic requirements of the person receiving the award. These are integrity, scholarship, and leadership.

Tea Given For Senior Women

A tea was given for senior women at Georgia State on May 23.

The tea for the senior women followed the Career Day Conference, which was held at the Atlanta Wofan's Club.

The tea began at 4 p.m. in Mrs. Nell H. Trotter's home, 28 13th Street, N.E.

Career Day Held May 23 for Junior And Senior Women

A Career Day was held for junior and senior women of Georgia State College, Saturday, May 23. A vocational panel discussed careers for women in journalism, retailing, teaching, personnel, and social work at the Atlanta Woman's Club from 2 to 4 p.m.

The event is sponsored by Phi Chi Theta, honor fraternity for women in business administration, and Crimson Key, women's honor leadership fraternity, at the College.

Panel members were Mrs. Beulah Campbell, principal, Winnow Park Elementary School, Decatur representing the field of education; Miss Hazel Breland, recruiting director, Southeastern Area National Red Cross, representing social service; Miss Catherine Simpson, assistant personnel director, Rich's Inc., representing personnel; and Miss Elizabeth Runyon, division merchandising manager, Rich's, representing retailing. Mrs. Martha W. Sinclair, assistant director of public relations at Georgia State College, represented the field of journalism and moderated the panel.

Students who planned the workshop were Misses Savilla Freeman, Ethel Spruill, Carole Scott, and Martha Sudderth.

GSC Students Represented in Arts Festival

Georgia State College art students were represented in the college art unit of the Atlanta Arts Festival this year.

Professor Joseph S. Perrin, head of the art department, and Professor Ferdinand Warren, head of the art department, Agnes Scott College, were co-chairmen of the art unit. They also were members of the board of directors of the festival.

The festival opened May 13 and lasted for a week.

Students' entries consisted of drawing, design, advanced design, ceramics, crafts, painting, and sculpture.

A special pavilion was built for the college unit in Piedmont Park. Colleges represented were Georgia State, Agnes Scott, Shorter College, University of Georgia, Wesleyan College, Georgia Tech, LaGrange College, and the Atlanta Art Institute.

HOWARD GURDMAN

Gordman Is Ga. Councilor For AKPsi

Dr. Howard S. Gordman, professor of finance at Georgia State, has been elected division councilor of Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity for the State of Georgia.

The Emory University chapter and the University of Georgia chapter joined with the Atlanta Alumni chapter in selecting Dr. Gordman to receive this honor.

Dr. Gordman will supervise all chapters in the State of Georgia and will do liaison work with sister chapters in business schools in Alabama and Tennessee.

The Georgia State educator studied at Yale and the University of Michigan. He teaches courses here in investments and the stock market.

Senior member at Georgia State of the American Economic Association, Dr. Gordman also is a member of the American Finance Association and the Southern Economic Association.

sculpture.

We Appreciate Your Business

B & D Cafeterias, Inc.

HONOR STUDENTS—Students receiving the Dean's Key from the School of Business are, from left to right, Edwood F. Addison, Chandler A. Brooks, Harold D. Greer, Constance M. Smith, Andrew G. Tampa and James G. Tampa. To receive the Dean's Key a student has to be listed on the Dean's List with Distinction for three quarters. The Dean's Keys were presented at the Honors Day Assembly. Dr. James E. Chapman, head of the management department, made the presentations.

Wharton Speaks At University of Georgia Meeting

Dr. Charles W. Wharton, professor of biology at Georgia State College, made a speech at the meeting of the University Center of Georgia held at the University of Georgia.

The University Center of Georgia is an organization composed of members from a number of Georgia institutes including Georgia Tech, Emory, Agnes Scott, and the University of Georgia.

Dr. Wharton showed a 14 minute film on the "Wild Cattle of Asia," and talked about the history of American domestic cattle.

Dr. Wharton said the film, which he made on one of his expeditions, is the only film ever taken of the animals in their native habitat.

3 Faculty Members Represented in Painting Contest

Georgia State College has three faculty members represented in the painting of the year contests.

Miss Virginia Sewell, Mr. Joseph G. Almyda, members of the art department faculty, and Mr. Joseph S. Perrin, head of the art department, are represented.

Exhibits were in the Atlanta Art Association Galleries, and were moved to the Atlanta Public Library the middle of May.

Mr. Perrin won the $1000 first prize award in 1957 in this competition.

Awards for the paintings were made April 26.

After leaving Atlanta the exhibit will move to Memphis, Tenn., and other Southeast museums.

Abracadabra

Foolish boy—the best way to make a bottle of Coke disappear is to drink it! Yes, swallow after swallow, that cold crisp taste is so deeply satisfying . . . and the lively lift is so bright and cheerful the whole day seems happier, just like magic. So open sesame! Just uncup the bottle and get ready for The Pause That Refreshes!

BE REALLY REFRESHED...HAVE A COKE!

Bottled under authority of The Coca-Cola Company by

THE ATLANTA COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.

More car than this Impala Sport Coupe is hard to find at any price.

clings to curves like a cat on a carpet!
 the travel-lovin' Chevrolet

Nothing else but a dyed-in-the-wool sports car like the Corvette can take a turn with such solid assurance!

It's easy to see where Chevrolet gets its road sense. With big coil springs at every wheel, a firm, wider stance and all of its pounds distributed with painstaking care, Chevy's born with it.

The only thing that may be hard to understand is how it can offer the ride it does, along with so many other luxury-car virtues, and still compete in the low-price field.

We use the word compete only in the sense of price. For with a ride as special as Chevy's, real competitors are hard to come by. There's a world of difference between Chevrolet's coil springs at all four wheels and the leaf springs that most other cars still use. Take a Chevy down a snaky back road and you'll feel the difference in the sure way it holds through curves and shoots over rough spots with hardly a ripple.

This one's really made to travel and loves every minute of it.

Stop by your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's and sample Chevy's road sense!

SIGNAL SPORTS

GERRY CHATHAM
Signal Sports Editor

The winner of the Interfraternity Council sports trophy will be decided Sunday, June 7. The games will be held at Piedmont Park and will begin at 1:00.

Three fraternities have a chance to win the trophy. They are Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Pi Alpha. Sigma Nu has an overall record of nine wins, four losses, and one tie. Pi Alpha has won nine, lost four, and tied one also. The Sig Eps have nine wins, three losses, and two ties.

The I.F.C. trophy is given to the fraternity with the best percentage of wins and losses. Tie games count as a half-game won and a half-game lost. The percentage is based on three sports—football, basketball, and softball.

The 1:00 game pits Sigma Nu against the Kappa Sigs. Sigma Nu must win this game to keep its title hopes alive. The 4:30 game will be between two trophy hopefuls—Pi Alpha and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

This is what can happen. If Pi Alpha beats Sigma Phi Epsilon and if Sigma Nu beats Kappa Sigma then the Pi Alphas and Sigma Nus share the trophy. If the Sigma Phi Epsilons win they take the trophy.

The whole I.F.C. sports program has been this close all year. Pi Kappa Phi and Kappa Sigma went down to the last game with the football trophy up for grabs. Pi Kappa Phi won the game by one touchdown.

Then in the basketball league Pi Alpha and Sigma Phi Epsilon went into the last game tied. The Sig Eps took a three point squeaker to capture the basketball crown.

Sunday, as the sports writers say, the game will go down to the last pitch. With three teams in the dog fight anything can happen and probably will.

This trophy means a lot to the prestige of the winning fraternity. It is a good feeling to see a glittering trophy sitting in the trophy case. Sure enough it looks like Sunday will bring a full-o-tension battle for the I.F.C. All-Sports trophy.

PRESIDENT'S SWORD—President Noah Langdale, Jr., of the college presents Cadet Colonel John Cowart with the President's sword, Cowart is the Battle Group Commander of the ROTC groups at Georgia State. The presentation of the sword to Cowart was made at the annual Military Honors Day held May 21.

ATLANTA DRIVEWAY COMPANY
3166 Maple Dr. N.E.
Atlanta 5, Ga.
We Contract For
For Further Information
Call — Cedar 3-5356
Nights Poplar 6-3539
Asphalt Driveways and Parking Areas

CASH IN A FLASH
For
USED TEXTBOOKS
GEORGIA BOOK STORE, INC.
80 EDGEWOOD AVE.

GENERAL COUNCIL—Boyd Duncan, president of General Council for 1958-59, congratulates Mel Stout, who was recently elected President of General Council for the coming year. General Council is composed of one member from each of the organizations at Georgia State.

Mel Stout Is Named General Council Head

Dr. Kenneth England, dean of men at Georgia State, installed the new officers at the May meeting of General Council.

New officers are Mel Stout, president; Clint Buckner, vice president; Perle Mossman, secretary; and John Lanier, treasurer.

President Langdale was speaker at the meeting. The president stressed the duty of the new officers to respond to Georgia and to the College. He urged the new officers to use their best efforts in directing student activities and organizations.

Dr. England noted that General Council has prospered as an organization longer than any other existing organization of its type at Georgia State College.

General Council is the co-ordinator of organizational activities at Georgia State. Its membership is composed of the presidents of each organization at the College.

Mercer Beats Ga. State 3-2

The Georgia State baseball team closed out its season with two losses to a strong Mercer nine.

Both games with the Mercer Bears were close. The first game, played here at Glynn Field, was a three to one triumph for Mercer.

Jim Cole, State pitcher, threw a six hitter but his mates could produce only one run. Bill Barr rapped a triple, Bill Ivey doubled and singled, and Lawson Hope singled twice to account for State's five hits.

The Panthers played their last game at Mercer. This time the Bears won 3-2.

Ben Brogan twirled an eight hitter. State got five hits, Louis Sulzer, Larry Simpson, Lawson Hope, Bill Barr, all singled for State.

LeCroy Elected President of IFC

Inter-fraternity Council officers for the 1959-60 school year were recently elected.

Jerry LeCroy, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, was elected president. Alpha Epsilon Pi member Danny Moret was elected vice president of the council.

Charles Murphy, Pi Kappa Phi, was elected secretary, and Baxter Jones, Sigma Nu, was elected treasurer.

The president for the past year, 1958-59, was Charlie Ray, a Sigma Nu member.

The Inter-Fraternity Council is composed of the social fraternities at Georgia State.

SIGNAL BEACON—Miss Sherry Nichols is the Signal's choice for this week's Signal Beacon. Sherry is a 19-year-old freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is majoring in journalism and says she hopes to make a career of journalism. Sherry has been a member of student council here for several quarters and has been a member of the Signal staff. Her hobbies are reading, dancing and water skiing.

Sigma Nu Fraternity Wins The IFC Softball Trophy

The four runs in the first two innings of a time shortened four-inning game sent the Sig Eps ahead. But Sigma Nu picked up two runs in the third then took the bunting by scoring four in the fourth.

The four run inning saw Ron Hill singling. A great diving stop by Sig Ep third baseman Jimmy Adams prevented the ball from going down the line and probably for extra bases. With men on second and third Tinnerman came through with his timely hit.

Jimmy Adams led the Sig Eps at bat with two hits.

In other action Pi Alpha beat Alpha Epsilon Pi and Kappa Sigma defeated Pi Kappa Phi.

Sunday, June 7, will wind up the I.F.C. softball season. The last day's action will pit Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Alpha in a battle for the I.F.C. all-sports trophy.

Sigma Nu has won the Interfraternity Council softball trophy. They won the trophy by defeating the Sig Eps in an exciting 6-4 contest. The Sigma Nu's scored four runs in the last inning to come from behind to victory.

Sigma Nu's four run last inning was high-lighter by a clutch single by Ed Tinnerman to put the Sigma Nus ahead to stay. Once again the Sigma Nu's relied on the right arm of V. A. Huff. V. A. has been the best pitcher in the I.F.C. league this year. The four runs scored by the Sig Eps are the most he has given up in one game.

Dr. Flanders Re-elected President Of the Atlanta Writers Club

Dr. Bert H. Flanders, head of the English department at Georgia State, was recently re-elected president of the Atlanta Writers Club.

Dr. Kenneth England, dean of men at Georgia State, was elected third vice-president of the club.

The speaker at the dinner meeting was Dr. Raymond A. Cook, a member of the English department faculty. Dr. Cook spoke to the group on the career of Thomas Dixon, a novelist.

Also at the meeting of the club, prizes were awarded to 15 prose and poetry contest winners.

Dr. Kenneth England won second place in the J. P. Allen Light Verse Award division.

52 ROTC Students Get Awards On Military Honors Day Here

"Awards Day is one in which we recognize merit."

So said Lt. Col. William P. David, P.M.S.&T. at Georgia State College in the introductory speech at the eighth annual Military Awards Day ceremony.

Fifty-two outstanding Georgia State cadets received awards during the ceremony held in the student lounge, 2 p.m. Thursday, May 21.

Colonel Paul A. Roy, Asst. Chief of Staff G3, Headquarters XII U. S. Army Corps, said that he is "proud of the poise and appearance of the battle group."

Cadet Nicholas Koeves-Toronyi received the first award of the afternoon, the President's Medal.

Freshman and Sophomore Military Scholarship Awards went to Jack W. Thacker Jr. and Walter A. Vaughan Jr., respectively.

Cadets Jeffrey C. Lynch, John D. Blair IV, Don E. Germano and John P. Maguire received the Superior Cadet Award.

Also winning awards were: Theodore H. Andrews, Third Army Certificate of Meritorious Leadership Achievement; Clifton G. Kemper, Medal of The Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; Richard J. Williams, American Legion 40 and 8 Award; John C. Buckner, Association of the United States Army Medal and Harold A. Lowe, Reserve Officer Association Award.

Thirteen cadets received the Distinguished Military Student Award. Joe S. Bryan, John C. Buckner, William J. Edwards Jr., Don E. Germano, Frank T. Hannah, Gordon W. Kilgore Jr., Charles M. Miller, James C. Newton, Mercer R. Peek, Larry G. Powell, Kenneth K. Pruitt, Gerald H. Spivey and C. H. Davis Tarrer Jr.

Other award recipients include: Carl D. Cochran, Ritter Music Medal; Walter L. Davis, Old Guard of the Gate City Guard Medal; C. H. Davis Tarrer Jr., Seaboard and Blade Medal; Gerald H. Purser, Best Drilled Cadet Medal and Joe S. Bryan, Seaboard and Blade Rifle Medal.

John H. Cowart was awarded the President's Sabre. Rifle Team Awards, medals or sweaters with school letter, went to 13 cadets.

Receiving medals were: Joe S. Bryan, William D. Fitch, Robert D. Hubbard, Gordon W. Kilgore Jr., James P. Morris, Charles D. Murphy, Charles H. Murphy, David P. Owens and Jack R. Thornton.

Those receiving a sweater with school letter were: Donald F. Berry, William C. Chadwick, Larry B. McComb and Bradford L. Rauschenburg.

ROTC Band letters were awarded to ten cadets. Thomas F. Bowden Jr., Carl D. Cochran, Roy S. Dickens Jr., David P. Jones, James B. Johnson Jr., John D. Morrison, Oliver D. Peters Jr., Ronald L. Townsend, James A. Wagner Jr., and Thomas H. Witcher.

ROTC Band sweaters went to Hugh C. Allen and Michael R. Hein.

Five cadets received the Pershing Rifle Achievement Award. John C. Buckner, Joe S. Bryan and James T. Cutcliff received gold awards. Silver and bronze awards were won by H. E. Thranhardt and Robert W. Haisten, respectively.

Plaques were awarded to the best drilled company, platoon and squad. Receiving these awards were Company "C," First Platoon, Company "D" and Third Squad, First Platoon, Company "E."

A guidon streamer for the best overall company was won by Company "A."

Many parents were among the guests present.

Other guests included: Mr. Ray Spitzer, member of The Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and also member of the Old Guard of the Gate City Guard; Colonel R. W. Collins, chairman of the R.O.T.C. Committee, Fulton County Voiture 217, Society of 40 and 8 American Legion and Colonel W. M. Perryman Jr., president, Greater Atlanta Chapter, Reserve Officer Association.

Guests from Georgia State College included: Noah Langdale Jr., president; William M. Suttles, dean of students; Dozier C. Cade, director of public relations; Kenneth M. England, dean of men; Robert T. Reiber, biology department head and rifle team advisor; Brenda Smith, battle group sweetheart; J. C. Horton Burch, dean of the school of Arts and Sciences and Henry T. Malone, director of development.

The R.O.T.C. Band, William H. Hill directing, was heard in several selections.

Unfavorable weather prevented the scheduled battle group review.

Answers To Word Quiz

(Continued from Page 4)

- (1) mull—C: To ponder; think about; as, to mull over an idea. Middle English mullen, "to pulverize."
- (2) mill—D: to move in confusion or in a circle; as, "The crowd began to mill around." Latin mola, "millstone."
- (3) mail—A: Level shaded walk, usually public; as, to promenade on the mall. Italian palla-maglio, "a ball-and-mallet game," whence Pall Mall in London, a place where a game was played.
- (4) roll—B: to irritate; anger; vex; as, to roll an opponent. Old French roull, "rust, mud."
- (5) hale—C: Healthy; sound and vigorous; robust; as, a hale and hearty person. Old English hal, "whole and sound."
- (6) rail—B: To denounce; use scornful, abusive language; as, to rail against injustice. French railleur, "to revile."
- (7) lull—D: To quiet; soothe to rest; as, to lull a child to sleep. Middle English and German lullen, "to sing as a lullaby."
- (8) lout—A: clumsy, awkward, ill-bred boor. Old Norse lutr, "bent over."
- (9) pale—B: A boundary or limit, or that which is enclosed within bounds; now used figuratively, as, beyond the pale of civilized society. Latin palus, "stake."
- (10) dolt—C: A stupid person; blockhead; dunce. Middle English dold, "dulled, stupid."
- (11) dour—D: Sullen; sour; as, a dour look. Latin durus, "hard."
- (12) hoax—B: A practical joke; deceptive trick or story; mischievous deception. Probably from hocus in "hocus-pocus."
- (13) cant—C: A slanting or tilted position; as, the cant of a sailboat. Latin canthus, "corner."
- (14) cope—A: Struggle or strive; contend or deal with; as, to cope with a problem. French couper, "to cut off."
- (15) toll—D: Something paid, lost or suffered; as, a heavy toll of lives.
- (16) bilk—B: To cheat; swindle; take advantage of; as, to bilk a customer.
- (17) maze—D: A baffling or confusing network, as of paths or passages; labyrinth; as, to be lost in a maze of conflicting regulations.
- (18) sate—C: To satisfy fully any appetite or desire; to surfeit; as, to sate with rich foods. Latin satiare, "to satisfy, satiate."
- (19) reek—B: To smell offensively; give out a strong, unpleasant odor; as, to reek with chemical fumes. Old English rec, "to smoke."
- (20) flag—A: To fail in vigor; weaken; decline; sag; as, "Audience interest began to flag." Latin flaccere, "to be faint, weak."

Vocabulary Ratings

- 20 correct ..... excellent
- 19-17 correct ..... good
- 16-14 correct ..... fair

On Campus with Max Schulman
(By the Author of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" and "Barefoot Boy with Cheek.")

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

This is the last column of my fifth year of writing for Philip Morris and Marlboro. I have made it a custom in the last column of each year not to be funny. I know I have also realized this aim in many other columns during the year, but that was not for lack of trying. Today I am not trying. I am not trying for two reasons: First, because you are getting ready for final exams and in your present state of shock, nothing in the world could possibly make you laugh. And second, this final column of the year is for many of us a leave-taking, and good-byes always make me too misty to be funny.

For me the year ends neither with a bang nor a whimper, but with a glow—a warm, pleasant, mellow glow—the kind of glow you will find, for example, at the end of a Philip Morris or Marlboro.

It has been in every way a gratifying experience, my five years with the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, and I would like to take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt appreciation to these good tobaccoists, to assure them that the memory of their kindness will remain ever green in my heart, and to remind them that they still owe me for the last three columns.

And in these waning days of the school year, let me address myself seriously to you, my readers. Have I trod on any toes this year? Ruffled any feelings? Jostled any sensibilities? If so, I am sorry.

Have I occasioned any laughs? Chuckles? Sniggers? Mona Lisa smiles? If so, I'm glad.

Have I persuaded any of you to try Philip Morris and Marlboro? To taste that fine flavor? To smoke that excellent tobacco? If so, you are glad.

And now the long, lazy summer lies ahead. But for me summer is never lazy. It is, in fact, the busiest time of year. Two summers ago, for instance, I was out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. There was a contest, you see, and the kid in my neighborhood who sold the most bluing won a pony. I am proud to report that I was the lucky winner.

Last summer I was also out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. I was trying to sell the pony.

This summer I am not going to be out ringing doorbells. I am going to saddle the pony and ride to Hollywood, California. What am I going to do in Hollywood, California? I am going to write a series of half-hour television comedies called THE MANY LOVES OF DOBIE GILLIS, and starting in October, 1959, your friends and mine, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, are going to bring you this program over the Columbia Broadcasting System every Tuesday night at 8:30. Why don't you speak to your housemother and ask her if she'll let you stay up to see it?

And now good-bye. For me it's been kicks all the way, and I hope for you it hasn't been altogether unbearable. Have a good summer. Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.

© 1959, Max Schulman

For us, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, it's been kicks too, and we would like to echo kindly old Max's parting words: Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.